Economy and Society in Prehistoric Europe A. Sherratt, 2019-08-07 This book brings together a classic collection of Andrew Sherratt's work on the economic foundations of prehistoric Europe which have put forward important new ideas about the development of farming pastoralism early technology and trade In a series of contributions that have included wide ranging syntheses and detailed local studies he discusses their implications for the understanding of settlement patterns social structures material culture and less tangible aspects of prehistoric life such as the spread of languages and the use of narcotics The Prehistory and Early History of Atlantic Europe European Association of Archaeologists. Annual Meeting, Jon C. Henderson, 2000 Papers from a session held at the European Association of Archaeologists Fourth Annual Meeting in Göteborg 1998 The contents of this volume are largely made up from papers delivered at The Prehistory and Early History of Atlantic Europe session held on the 25th of September 1998 at the 4th Annual Meeting of the European Association of Archaeologists in Göteborg Sweden The aim of this volume in common with the original aim of the session is quite simply to promote wider discussion on the existence scale and significance of maritime communications between Atlantic communities European Societies in the Bronze Age A. F. Harding, 2000-05-18 The Bronze Age roughly 2500 to 750 BC was the last fully prehistoric period in Europe and a crucial element in the formation of the Europe that emerged into history in the later first millennium BC This book focuses on the material culture remains of the period and through them provides an interpretation of the main trends in human development that occurred during this timespan It pays particular attention to the discoveries and theoretical advances of the last twenty years that have necessitated a major revision of received opinions about many aspects of the Bronze Age Arranged thematically it reviews the evidence for a range of topics in cross cultural fashion defining which major characteristics of the period were universal and which culture and area specific The result is a comprehensive study that will be of value to specialists and students while remaining accessible to the non specialist California Prehistory Terry L. Jones, Kathryn A. Klar, 2007-07-16 Some forty scholars examine California's prehistory and archaeology looking at marine and terrestrial palaeoenvironments initial human colonization linguistic prehistory early forms of exchange mitochondrial DNA studies and rock art This work is the most extensive study of California's prehistory undertaken in the past 20 years An essential resource for any scholar of California prehistory and archaeology The Agricultural Revolution in Prehistory Graeme Barker, 2009 Addressing one of the most debated revolutions in the history of our species the change from hunting and gathering to farming this title takes a global view and integrates an array of information from archaeology and many other disciplines including anthropology botany climatology genetics linguistics and zoology The Moundbuilders: Ancient Societies of Eastern North America (Second) George R. Milner, 2021-03-09 Brought up to date with the latest research The Moundbuilders is the definitive visual guide to North America's eastern region and the societies that forever changed its landscape Hailed by Bruce D Smith curator of North American archaeology at the Smithsonian Institution as without question the best available book on the pre Columbian societies of eastern North America this wide ranging and richly illustrated volume covers the entire prehistory of the Eastern Woodlands and the thousands of earthen mounds that can be found there built between 3100 BCE and 1600 CE The second edition of The Moundbuilders has been brought fully up to date with the latest research on the peopling of the Americas including more coverage of pre Clovis groups new material on Native American communities in the thirteenth to sixteenth centuries CE and new narratives of migration drawn from ancient and modern DNA Far reaching and illustrated throughout this book is the perfect visual guide to the region for students tourists archaeologists and anyone interested in ancient American history

Regional Approaches to Mortuary Analysis Lane Anderson Beck,2013-11-11 In this volume archaeologists offer a new direction for burial research by expanding the models for mortuary analysis from a site specific to a regional level Contributors explore how regional mortuary approaches allow the introduction of new questions about peer polity interactions and regional alliances extending traditional settlement system and exchange analyses This volume features case studies examining mortuary sites as components of the archaeological landscape

Warfare and Society Ton Otto, Henrik Thrane, Helle Vandkilde,2006-11-01 This book straddles the disciplines of archaeology and social anthropology Its 25 contributions divided into 6 sections with separate introductions successively scrutinise the concept of war in philosophy social theory and the history of anthropological and archaeological research discuss warfare in pre state and state societies and assess its relationship to rituals social identification and material culture

Personal Ornaments in Prehistory Emma L. Baysal,2019-08-29 Beads bracelets necklaces pendants and many other ornaments are familiar objects that play a fundamental role in personal expression and communication This book considers how and why the human relationship with ornaments developed and continued over tens of thousands of years from hunter gatherer life in the cave to urban elites from expedient use of natural resources to complex technologies Using evidence from archaeological sites across Turkey the Near East and the Balkans it explores the history of personal ornaments from their appearance in the Palaeolithic until the rise of urban centers in the Early Bronze Age and encompassing technologies ranging from stone cutting to early glazing metallurgy and the roots of glass manufacture The development of theoretical and practical approaches to ornaments and the current state of research are illustrated with a wide variety of examples This book shows that far from being objects of display of little value in archaeological interpretation and often overlooked these artifacts are key to understanding trade relationships values beliefs and the construction of personal identity in the past Indeed more than any other group of artifacts their variety in material form use and distribution opens doors to both wide ranging scientific exploration and consideration of what it is to be human

Prehistory and Early History of the Malpai Borderlands Paul R. Fish,2006 Prehispanic and early historic archaeological information for the Malpai Borderlands of southwest New Mexico and southeast Arizona is reviewed using data derived from field reconnaissance discussion with relevant scholars archival resources from varied agencies and institutions and published literature Previous regional research has focused on late prehistory A D 1200 to 1450 shaping the scope of cultural historical overview and providing an opportunity to examine relationships with Casas Grandes Paquime to the south A second important objective of current study is the exploration of prehispanic and early historic human impacts to Borderlands ecosystems particularly in relation fire ecology A recommended sequence of future research is intended to address significant questions surrounding both culture history and anthropogenic environments in the Malpai Borderlands

The Wessex Hillforts Project Andrew Payne, Mark Corney, Barry Cunliffe, 2014-06-15 The earthwork forts that crown many hills in Southern England are among the largest and most dramatic of the prehistoric features that still survive in our modern rural landscape The Wessex Hillforts Survey collected wide ranging data on hillfort interiors in a three year partnership between the former Ancient Monuments Laboratory of English Heritage and Oxford University These defended enclosures occupied from the end of the Bronze Age to the last few centuries before the Roman conquest have long attracted archaeological interest and their function remains central to study of the Iron Age The communal effort and high degree of social organisation indicated by hillforts feeds debate about whether they were strongholds of Celtic chiefs communal centres of population or temporary gathering places occupied seasonally or in times of unrest Yet few have been extensively examined archaeologically Using non invasive methods the survey enabled more elaborate distinctions to be made between different classes of hillforts than has hitherto been possible The new data reveals not only the complexity of the archaeological record preserved inside hillforts but also great variation in complexity among sites Survey of the surrounding countryside revealed hillforts to be far from isolated features in the later prehistoric landscape Many have other less visible forms of enclosed settlement in close proximity Others occupy significant meeting points of earlier linear ditch systems and some appear to overlie or be located adjacent to blocks of earlier prehistoric field systems

Epidemiology and Prevention of Cardiovascular Diseases Darwin Labarthe, 2011 Epidemiology and Prevention of Cardiovascular Disease A Global Challenge Second Edition provides an in depth examination of epidemiologic research and prevention measures for the full range of cardiovascular diseases CVD This authoritative text on the world's leading causes of death describes in detail the nature of atherosclerotic and hypertensive diseases including their determinants prevention and control as well as policies for intervention in community and clinical settings This Second Edition is fully updated more extensively referenced and expanded to include new information about the public health dimensions of CVD prevention exploring the basis of public health decisions and the process by which decision making bodies develop guidelines and recommendations Epidemiology and Prevention of Cardiovascular Diseases A Global Challenge Second Edition is the essential text for any student or practitioner concerned with global cardiovascular health

Bronze Age Landscapes Joanna Bruck, 2002-02-01 This volume is a collection of essays which exemplify the range and diversity of work currently being undertaken on the regional landscapes of the British Bronze Age and the progress which has been made in both theoretical and interpretive debate Together these papers reflect the vibrancy of current research and promote a closer marriage of landscape site and material culture studies
