Sociocultural Approaches to Language and Literacy Vera John-Steiner, Carolyn P. Panofsky, Larry W. Smith, 1994-08-26 This book deals with a major crisis in education the achievement of literacy skills Psychology: Educational psychology Irving B. Weiner, Donald K. Freedheim, 2003 Includes established theories and cutting edge developments Presents the work of an international group of experts Presents the nature origin implications an future course of major unresolved issues in the area Vygotskian Perspectives on Literacy Research Carol D. Lee, Peter Smagorinsky, 2000 Contains essays that analyze learning and development based on Lev Vygotsky's cultural historical theory of human development describing how schooling is influenced by culture and using Vygotsky's theory to find solutions to education problems An Introduction to Discourse Analysis James Paul Gee, 2005 Assuming no prior knowledge of linguistics the author presents both a theory of language in use a method of research This new edition has been completely revised with substantial new material fully updated references Inner Speech - L2 Maria C.M. de Guerrero, 2006-03-30 According to Vygotsky 1986 The decreasing vocalization of egocentric speech denotes a developing abstraction from sound the child's new faculty to think words instead of pronouncing them This is the positive meaning of the sinking coefficient of egocentric speech The downward curve indicates development toward inner speech p 230 The purpose of this volume is to explore the faculty to think words not as the ability to mentally evoke words in the native or first language LI but as the faculty 1 to conjure up in the mind words in a second language L2 To think words rather than to pronounce them is possible through inner speech a function that humans develop in the course of childhood as they internalize the speech of the social group among which they grow This means internalizing and being able to conduct inner speech in a particular linguistic code the LI But humans at a very early or more mature age may also come into contact and interact verbally with speakers of other languages in classrooms or natural settings The possibility thus emerges of internalizing an L2 in such a way that inner speech in the L2 might evolve In this book it is argued that given certain conditions of L2 learning it is possible for learners to attain inner speech in the L2 This book examines the distinctive nature of L2 inner speech and the processes that engender it and characterize its development Writing Development Clotilde Pontecorvo, 1997-01-01 This volume presents a selection of papers presented at a series of three workshops organized by the Network Written Language and Literacy as launched by the European Science Foundation The main topics making up Writing Development are 1 Writing and literacy acquisition Links between speech and writing with contributions by David R Olson Claire Blanche Benveniste Emilia Ferreiro Ruth Berman Liliana Tolchinsky 2 Writing and reading in time and culture with contributions by Collette Sirat Françoise Desbordes Harmut Gunther Peter Koch 4 Writing systems brain structures and languages A neurolinguistic view with contributions by Giuseppe Cossu Heinz Wimmer Uta Frith Brian Butterworth The volume heads off with an extensive introduction Studying writing and writing acquisition today A multidisciplinary view Aspects of the Dialogical

Self Marie C Bertau, 2004-01-01 Aspects of the Dialogical Self is at the core a documentation of the outcome of a symposium held at the Second International Connference on the Dialogical Self 2002 Starting from a psycholinguistical and socio cultural approach its aim was to present several perspectives on the phenomenon of inner speech on the borders of communication and cognition and of individual and social performances The symposium was concerned with the concept of development in different respects in regard to the relation between inner speech and literacy Juan Daniel Ramirez to questions and their special role for the dialogical self Marie C cile Bertau and to the role of mutuality in psychological growth Vera John Steiner The contributions are each followed by comments thereby conveying some orality and voicedness This core is surrounded by an introductory part depicting the theory of the dialogical self accompanied by a proposition on modeling Marie C cile Bertau and by an additional topic which is a quite important and complex issue for the dialogical self addressivity The first contribution tries to open up the horizon in which addressivity could be placed departing from philosophical considerations going via conversational analysis to developmental aspects Marie C cile Bertau This general approach is supplied by two contributions dealing with specific moments of addressivity the first one focuses on the special cases of open states of talk faked multiple addressing and self talk Heike Baldauf Quilliatre The second contribution Marta Soler Gallart could well be read as a complement to Ramirez's article since it deals with dialogical reading stating the transformative force of addressing Thus the book offers specific as well as general vistas of the dialogical self and of related questions such as ontogenetic and microgenetic development and conceptions of addressivity Peer Interaction and Second Language Learning Masatoshi Sato, Susan Ballinger, 2016-03-10 This volume represents the first collection of empirical studies focusing on peer interaction for L2 learning These studies aim to unveil the impact of mediating variables such as task type mode of interaction and social relationships on learners interactional behaviors and language development in this unique and pedagogically powerful learning context To examine these issues contributors employed quantitative qualitative and mixed methods designs as well as cognitive social and sociocognitive theoretical frameworks The majority of the studies are classroom based and were conducted in a rich array of settings covering five continents and encompassing a wide range of learner L1s and target languages These settings include second and foreign language classrooms from primary to university level content based programs online contexts and after school programs To span the divide between research and practice each study includes a section suggesting pedagogical implications Children's Language Keith E. Nelson, Ayhan Aksu-Ko‡, 2005-04-11 These volumes present coherent sets of papers developed along two of the thematic lines that underscored the program of the meeting of the International Association for the Study of Child Language in Istanbul in the summer of 1996 Thoroughly reviewed and updated to reflect the state of child language research and theory particularly in the domains of discourse and interaction they convey not only the flavor of that meeting but some of the most exciting trends in the field today Each contribution in Volume 10 Developing Narrative and Discourse Competence focuses on the differential effects of discourse genres elicitation techniques communicative contexts literacy and schooling and the oft cited variables of age language and culture Issues concerning the interrelations between social cognitive and affective capacities and processes in discourse are addressed Each chapter raises theoretical questions regarding how and when representations are constructed to support new complexities Presenting data from a cross cultural and cross linguistic perspective this volume highlights both the particulars and the universals of the processes involved The chapters in Volume 11 Interactional Contributions to Language Development address issues including scaffolding of processing and learning in particular interactional sequences linkages among interpersonal functions or relations cognitive development and semantic syntactic and pragmatic devices or forms and models of how interactions proceed input is selected and learning advances across multiple rounds of interaction Each of these volumes will be a valuable addition to the libraries of all who study the Creating Alternative Discourses in the Education of Latinos and Latinas Raul E. Ybarra, Nancy development of language López, 2004 While Latinos and Latinas are the youngest and largest U S minority group they continue to be among the poorest and least educated A major contribution of Creating Alternative Discourses in the Education of Latinos and Latinas is that it provides scholars teachers and practitioners with counter hegemonic theories methods and pedagogies that challenge the mainstream assumptions about the education of this group Drawing on rich ethnographic portrayals including life history interviews focus groups and participant observation this interdisciplinary volume bridges diverse bodies of literature in an attempt to bring about changes in the education of Latinos and Latinas Research and Reflections on Southeast Asian American Education and Advancement Wayne E. Wright, Vikrant Chap, Phitsamay S. Uy, Chhany Sak-Humphry, Vichet Chhuon, Bryan Thao Worra, 2025-05-15 This book is in commemoration of the twentieth anniversary of the Journal of Southeast Asian American Education and Advancement JSAAEA and the fiftieth anniversary of Southeast Asian American refugee resettlement in the United States Pivotal research articles reviews and creative works from past issues of JSAAEA have been selected for this volume to document the history and experiences of Cambodian Laotian Hmong and Vietnamese Americans since initial refugee resettlement began in the United States in 1975 as well as the experiences of more recent Southeast Asian immigrant and refugee groups Reviews of academic books novels memoirs children s books and motion pictures further highlight Southeast Asian American perspectives and experiences Creative works including poetry and short stories by Cambodian Laotian Hmong Vietnamese Thai and Burmese American writers provide additional and often intimate insights and reflections on the Southeast Asian American experience Awareness Matters Claudia Finkbeiner, Agneta Svalberg, 2016-01-22 This collection argues that being aware of and reflecting on language form and language use is a powerful tool not only in language learning but also in wider society It adopts an interdisciplinary stance one chapter argues the need for Language Awareness in business contexts while another examines the role of critical cultural awareness and Language Awareness in education as bildung Others report on research studies in language classrooms and in teacher education Language Awareness is interrogated from a range of perspectives such as peer interaction teaching young learners learner strategies and strategies for writing online reading and oral fluency training. The scope is global including contributions from Canada Germany Iran Japan Spain and the UK and covers bilingual as well as multilingual contexts The book will be of interest to language teachers language teacher educators other language professionals and generally to the language aware This book was originally published as a special issue of Language Awareness The Sociocultural Turn in Psychology Suzanne Kirschner, Jack Martin, 2010-06-01 The sociocultural turn in psychology treats psychological subjects such as the mind and the self as processes that are constituted or made up within specific social and cultural practices In other words though one s distinct psychology is anchored by an embodied biological existence sociocultural interactions are integral to the evolution of the person Only in the past two decades has the sociocultural turn truly established itself within disciplinary and professional psychology Providing advanced students and practitioners with a definitive understanding of these theories Suzanne R Kirschner and Jack Martin former presidents of the American Psychological Association s Division of the Society for Theoretical and Philosophical Psychology assemble a collection of essays that describes the discursive hermeneutic dialogical and activity approaches of sociocultural psychology Each contribution recognizes psychology as a human science and supports the individual s potential for agency and freedom At the same time they differ in their understanding of a person's psychological functioning and the best way to study it Ultimately the sociocultural turn offers an alternative to overly biological or interiorized theories of the self emphasizing instead the formation and transformation of our minds in relation to others and the world Best Practices in Online Teaching and Learning across Academic Disciplines Ross C. Alexander, 2017-10-17 Online teaching and learning has surged in recent years and faculty who normally teach in face to face settings are increasingly called upon to teach blended hybrid and fully online courses Best Practices in Online Teaching and Learning across Academic Disciplines provides insights from experienced university teachers and scholars across multiple disciplines including social sciences humanities natural sciences mathematics and professional programs such as nursing education and business administration who share innovative practices pedagogies and instructional design techniques This work highlights and features effective practical innovative and engaging best practices and approaches in online teaching and instructional design that can assist university faculty members and teachers course designers and developers and administrators invested and involved in online education Using a common theme and structure each chapter is co authored by faculty members possessing a wealth of experience and credentialing in online teaching and instructional design in the relevant discipline or sub discipline Chapters include best practices approaches and techniques within the discipline as well as relevant innovative and specific tools and strategies that improve student engagement and outcomes The book will appeal to faculty members and administrators in higher education teaching or designing online courses or entire online curricula as well as instructional design staff working with and training faculty Readers will be especially interested to discover lessons about how contributors have successfully taught and designed courses in disciplines not typically associated with online learning such as mathematics composition writing drawing hard sciences and speech among others Distributed for George Mason University Press Social Linguistics and Literacies James Gee, 2015-02-27 In its first edition Social Linguistics and Literacies was a major contribution to the emerging interdisciplinary field of sociocultural approaches to language and literacy and was one of the founding texts of the New Literacy Studies This book serves as a classic introduction to the study of language learning and literacy in their social cultural and political contexts It shows how contemporary sociocultural approaches to language and literacy emerged and Engages with topics such as orality and literacy the history of literacy the nature of discourse analysis and social theories of mind and meaning Explores how language functions in a society Surveys the notion of discourse with specific reference to cross cultural issues in communities and schools This fifth edition offers an overview of the sociocultural approaches to language and literacy that coalesced into the New Literacy Studies It also introduces readers to a particular style of analyzing language in use in society and develops a distinctive specific perspective on language and literacy centered on the notion of Discourses It will be of interest to researchers lecturers and students in education linguistics or any field that deals with language especially in social or cultural terms Children with Visual Impairments Joao Roe, Alec Webster, 2002-11-01 This book is aimed at the mainstream class teacher who has little or no experience of providing effective learning experiences for children with visual impairments It is designed both as an introductory guide to assessment and provision It also has a strong focus on social interactions since many teachers are confused as how to help children with visual impairments make friends The book sets out the basis for addressing the individual with a wide range of visual impairments Chapters cover the identification and assessment of aspects of vision visual impairment and individual needs practical advice on the development of concepts language and literacy and social skills the use of low vision aids appropriate decor and physical layouts lighting and IT educational policy and the Code of Practice Drawing on very recent research this book presents new insights into the needs of children with visual impairments as learners arguing that it is the quality of the child's social interactions which promotes play language and learning Philosophy For, With, and Of Children Monica B. Glina, 2014-09-26 On one level Philosophy for Children P4C exists takes place and is understood as a set of relatively theory neutral practices we share a story or other kind of stimulus that is both meaningful and philosophically problematic we raise questions about it that will help us inquire into what is problematic we inquire together as a community of philosophical inquiry mostly through a process of dialogue we explore ways to experiment with these dialogical judgments in writing in works of art in action and in life and we self assess our own thinking and our work as a community of inquiry in order to collectively self correct On another level P4C exists takes place and is understood as a set of theory laden and agenda laden practices that are undertaken as means to certain kinds of desired outcomes These are the program s aims and objectives and they come from three places the core practices inherent in P4C those that have become obvious to practitioners or have developed out of extensive practice and those that have developed out of philosophical and empirical research in philosophy and education including epistemology learning theory argumentation theory and the politics of discourse and political theory This last kind of work presents the challenge to P4C to find out if there is such a thing as a core theory that justifies the core practices and if so whether the integrity offered by such a theory is either shored up or compromised by being pulled in any of these other directions The diversity of curriculum materials pedagogical protocols and grounding theories P4C has spawned signifies not merely different approaches to but different conceptions of what it means to teach philosophy to children or to engage children in philosophical practices The chapters in Philosophy For With and Of Children present a broad range of directions for P4C and illustrate the considerable diversity of agendas that can be brought to it as well as the ways in which these agendas sometimes complement and sometimes undermine one another Literacy and Deaf People Brenda Jo Brueggemann, 2004 This compelling collection advocates for an alternative view of deaf people's literacy one that emphasizes recent shifts in Deaf cultural identity rather than a student's past educational context as determined by the dominant hearing society Divided into two parts the book opens with four chapters by leading scholars Tom Humphries Claire Ramsey Susan Burch and volume editor Brenda Io Brueggemann These scholars use diverse disciplines to reveal how schools where deaf children are taught are the product of ideologies about teaching about how deaf children learn and about the relationship of ASL and English Part Two features works by Elizabeth Engen and Trygg Engen Tane Akamatsu and Ester Cole Lillian Buffalo Tompkins Sherman Wilcox and BoMee Corwin and Kathleen M Wood The five chapters contributed by these noteworthy researchers offer various views on multicultural and bilingual literacy instruction for deaf students Subjects range from a study of literacy in Norway where Norwegian Sign Language recently became the first language of instruction for deaf pupils to the difficulties faced by deaf immigrant and refugee children who confront institutional and cultural clashes Other topics include the experiences of deaf adults who became bilingual in ASL and English and the interaction of the pathological versus the cultural view of deafness The final study examines literacy among Deaf college undergraduates as a way of determining how the current social institution of literacy translates for Deaf adults and how literacy can be extended to deaf people beyond the age of 20 Vygotsky's Educational Theory in Cultural Context Alex Kozulin, Boris Gindis, Vladimir S. Ageyev, Suzanne M. Miller, 2003-09-15 This 2003 book comprehensively covers all major topics of Vygotskian educational theory and its classroom applications Particular attention is paid to the Vygotskian idea of child development as a consequence rather than premise of learning experiences Such a reversal allows for new interpretations of the relationships between cognitive development and education at different junctions of the human life span It also opens new perspectives on atypical development learning disabilities and assessment of children's learning potential Classroom applications of Vygotskian theory are discussed in the book Teacher training and the changing role of a teacher in a sociocultural classroom is discussed in addition to the issues of teaching and learning activities and peer interactions Relevant research findings from the US Western Europe and Russia are brought together to clarify the possible new applications of Vygotskian ideas in different disciplinary areas The Handbook of Second Language Acquisition Catherine J. Doughty, Michael H. Long, 2008-04-15 The Handbook of Second Language Acquisition presents an integrated discussion of key and sometimes controversial issues in second language acquisition research Discusses the biological and cognitive underpinnings of SLA mechanisms processes and constraints on SLA the level of ultimate attainment research methods and the status of SLA as a cognitive science Includes contributions from twenty seven of the world's leading scholars Provides an invaluable resource for all students and scholars of human cognition including those in linguistics psychology applied linguistics ESL foreign languages and cognitive science
