CD-ROM Collection Builder's Toolkit Paul T. Nicholls, 1991 A critical engagement with theological education in Africa Johannes J.

Knoetze, Alfred R. Brunsdon, 2022-02-07 The higher education landscape has arguably become one of the most arduous to traverse More so in the African context where a host of variables continuously challenge educators to reflect critically on their philosophies and practices as they engage an ever changing audience In this book a critical engagement with theological education in Africa is offered As the book originates from South Africa it is presented as a South African perspective although contributors are situated accross the African continent and abroad The common denominator is that all contributors are in some way or another invested in theological education in Africa The main contribution of this collaborative work is to be sought in the insights it offers on four main areas of theological education A historical and current orientation on theological education in Africa some paradigm shifts in theological education in Africa ministerial formation needs versus theological education challenges and a critical reflection on elective models and methods The book presents the original and innovative research of scholars for fellow scholars involved in theological higher education as it is grounded in the respective fields of interest of each contributor It contributes to a better understanding of the complex African theological higher education landscape that is also mindful of post COVID 19 realities Methodologically the work draws on a combination of methods including literature studies empirical work and in some cases sectional offerings from doctoral studies as indicated in the various chapters

The Participant Christopher M. Kelty, 2020-01-21 Participation is everywhere today It has been formalized measured standardized scaled up network enabled and sent around the world Platforms algorithms and software offer to make participation easier but new technologies have had the opposite effect We find ourselves suspicious of how participation extracts our data or monetizes our emotions and the more procedural participation becomes the more it seems to recede from our grasp In this book Christopher M Kelty traces four stories of participation across the twentieth century showing how they are part of a much longer term problem in relation to the individual and collective experience of representative democracy Kelty argues that in the last century or so the power of participation has dwindled over time it has been formatted in ways that cramp and dwarf it even as the drive to participate has spread to nearly every kind of human endeavor all around the world The Participant is a historical ethnography of the concept of participation investigating how the concept has evolved into the form it takes today It is a book that asks Why do we participate And sometimes Why do we refuse As Doves Fly in the Wind Mary Lou Cheatham,2017-10-19 Jessica Boudreaux Hays a retired music professor has recently moved to Rousseauville to open a bed and breakfast in her grandparents house An attractive and talented fifty five year old widow Jessica loves to cook entertain and play the piano Her life is filled with problems Emmie her younger sister who lives with her cannot be left alone The sisters recently lost their parents in an automobile accident The residents of the village are charitable but superstitious For some mysterious reason they refuse to go near her or the bed and breakfast Another frustration in Jessicas life is her cyber romance with a mysterious stranger Dale Bonnier a fifty five year old widower pastors two small churches in rural south Louisiana He inspires the people in Rousseauville with his compelling sermons He is considerate and approachable but at times disorganized and impetuous His parishioners especially Jessica find his preaching inspiring Dale has a recurring problem with his past In the 1980s when he was an intense young man he destroyed his home and family as he sought to satisfy his cravings for illicit drugs Thirty years have passed God has forgiven him but the past has left indelible scars Can Dale forgive himself He cannot turn his past around but he hopes it will be used to influence and inspire others Jessica tries to start over in Rousseauville but she encounters unpredicted stormy times Can she find acceptance Will she ever find a man she can love and trust The Veteran's Toolkit for PTSD Chaplain Ramsey Coutta,2010 The pain that veterans and their loved ones experience after the veteran returns home from combat can be a long and difficult struggle Symptoms of PTSD such as anger emotional distance irritableness flashbacks nightmares and trouble sleeping among others make each day seem like a burden rather than the blessing it was meant to be Veterans and their loved ones often just want to know what specific things they can do to make life better once again and control those symptoms that are so harmful This book is designed to provide those coping tools that will allow them to do just that Twenty practical tools for addressing the symptoms of PTSD are provided in an easily understandable and usable format Illustrations are also provided to describe how PTSD symptoms might look in the everyday life of the veteran Ramsey Coutta PhD a chaplain and veteran of the Iraq War having counseled numerous veterans upon their return from combat addresses those PTSD symptoms veterans struggle with the most Through these twenty practical tools veterans and their loved ones can find improved coping and hope once again American Book Publishing Record ,2000-07 The National Archives History Toolkit for Primary Schools Clare Horrie,Rachel Hillman,2020-03-19 The ultimate companion to teaching history in primary schools With instant access to genuine historical sources that can be downloaded from a companion website accompanied by exciting lesson plans activities and photocopiable worksheets for both Key Stages 1 and 2 The National Archives History Toolkit for Primary Schools is the essential manual for teaching history in the primary classroom Teaching history using original sources is crucial to developing pupils critical thinking skills and understanding of what history is all about Each

The Top Books of the Year The Complete Bible Study Tool Kit The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
