The Complete I Ching The Definitive Translation By The Taoist Master Alfred Huang:

The Complete I Ching, 2010-11-17 A revised edition of the definitive translation of the world's most important book of divination. More than 64 000 copies sold of the first edition. The first English translation from within the tradition by a Chinese Taoist Master. Includes translations of the Ten Wings, the commentaries by Confucius, essential to the I Ching's insights. Features elegant French flaps. Translated by the eminent Taoist Master Alfred Huang. The Complete I Ching has been praised by scholars and new students of the I Ching since its first edition. A native Chinese speaker, Master Huang first translated the original ideograms of the I Ching into contemporary Chinese and then into English, bringing forth the intuitive meanings embodied in the images of the I Ching and imbuing his translation with an accuracy and authenticity not possible in other English translations. However, what makes his translation truly definitive is his return to prominence of the Ten Wings, the commentaries by Confucius that are essential to the I Ching's insights. This 10th anniversary edition offers a thorough introduction to the history of the I Ching, how to use it, and several new divination methods in depth and easy to reference. Translations of each hexagram name, description, and pictogram, and discussions of the interrelations between the hexagrams and the spiritual meaning of their sequence.

The Complete I Ching Alfred Huang, 2004. The highly regarded translation that honors the authentic Chinese spirit of the Book of Changes. Places new emphasis on the intricate web of interrelations among the names and sequence of the sixty-four hexagrams. Includes historical information on the events out of which the I Ching was born. Introduces several new methods of divination. For more than 3 000 years, the I Ching has been the most important book of divination in the world. Revered by billions of Chinese as the Classic of Classics and consulted as a source of ancient wisdom, it has been embraced by the West in the last 50 years but has always been translated by Westerners who brought their own cultural biases to the work, distorting or misunderstanding its true meaning. In The Complete I Ching, Master Alfred Huang has restored the true essence of the I Ching by emphasizing the unity of Heaven and humanity and the Tao of Change, and even more important, by including translations of the Ten Wings, the commentaries by Confucius that are essential to the I Ching's insights. Previous English translations have either given these commentaries a minor place in the book or have left them out altogether. But the Chinese say that the I Ching needs the Ten Wings to fly. Restored to their central place in the book by Master Huang, the I Ching at last flies in English.

The Complete I Ching, 2010. A careful comparison of Huang's translation with the Wilhelm, Legge, and Blofeld versions reveals its superiority in nearly every respect. Readers interested in acquainting themselves with the I Ching for the first time need to look no further; those who have formed a deep personal attachment to a previous translation owe it to themselves to explore this one as well. Intuition: What is constant through this translation is both a sense of tradition and an appreciation of modernity. Throughout is a philosophical calmness, a sense of the intellectual mingling with the spirit of things. Most importantly, Huang makes this a useful I Ching, more useful for the current temperament than older, more self-conscious translations.

During his 22 years of confinement, he found the strength to survive through meditation on the I Ching. Released in 1979, he emigrated to the United States. The founder of New Harmony, a nonprofit organization devoted to self-healing, and the author of The Numerology of the I Ching and Complete Tai Chi, Master Huang lives on the island of Maui.
