World José Casanova, 2024-05-31 In a sweeping reconsideration of the relation between religion and modernity José Casanova surveys the roles that religions may play in the public sphere of modern societies During the 1980s religious traditions around the world from Islamic fundamentalism to Catholic liberation theology began making their way often

forcefully out of the private sphere and into public life causing the deprivatization of religion in contemporary life No longer content merely to administer pastoral care to individual souls religious institutions are challenging dominant political and social forces raising questions about the claims of entities such as nations and markets to be value neutral and straining the traditional connections of private and public morality Casanova looks at five cases from two religious traditions Catholicism and Protestantism in four countries Spain Poland Brazil and the United States These cases challenge postwar and indeed post Enlightenment assumptions about the role of modernity and secularization in religious movements throughout the world This book expands our understanding of the increasingly significant role religion plays in the ongoing construction of the modern world

The Praxis of Suffering Rebecca S. Chopp, 2007-03-16 Liberation and political theologies have emerged powerfully in recent years interrupting the way in which First World Christians both experience and understand their faith Through an analysis of the cultural and ecclesial contexts of these theological movements as well as a critical examination of four of their principal exponents Gustavo Gutierrez Johann Baptist Metz Jose Miguez Bonino and Jurgen Moltmann the author demonstrates that political and liberation theologies represent a new model of theology one that proffers a vision of Christian witness as a praxis of solidarity with suffering persons
