The Congress Party in West Bengal Prasanta Sen Gupta, 1988 Calcutta Tanika Sarkar. Sekhar Bandyopadhyay, 2017-07-14 The period 1940s to 1950s was chaotic and turbulent in Calcutta yet this was also a time of significant creativity in literature art films and music in the city The originality of the work lies in blending poetry with historical writing retaining the essence of both forms against the backdrop of the tumultuous events of the critical decades This historical method together with twenty one papers give the reader a sense of the pulse of this complex city emerging creatively and chaotically from its colonial past Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Decolonization in South Asia Sekhar Bandyopadhyay, 2009-06-03 This book explores the meanings and complexities of India's experience of transition from colonial to the post colonial period It focuses on the first five years from independence on 15th August 1947 to the first general election in January 1952 in the politics of West Bengal the new Indian province that was created as a result of the Partition The author a specialist on the history of modern India discusses what freedom actually meant to various individuals communities and political parties how they responded to it how they extended its meaning and how in their anxiety to confront the realities of free India they began to invent new enemies of their newly acquired freedom By emphasising the representations of popular mentality rather than the institutional changes brought in by the process of decolonization he draws attention to other concerns and anxieties that were related to the problems of coming to terms with the newly achieved freedom and the responsibility of devising independent rules of governance that would suit the historic needs of a pluralist nation Decolonization in South Asia analyses the transitional politics of West Bengal in light of recent developments in postcolonial theory on nationalism treating the nation as a space for contestation rather than a natural breeding ground for homogeneity in the complex political scenario of post independence India It will appeal to academics interested in political science sociology social anthropology and cultural and Asian studies Ibss: Political Science: 1988 British Library of Political and Economic Science, 1992 This bibliography lists the most important works in political science published in 1988 Partition's Legacies Iova Chatterji, 2021-01-01 Partition's Legacies offers a selection of Joya Chatterji's finest and most influential essays Partition nation making frontiers refugees minority formation and categories of citizenship have been my preoccupations she writes in the preface and these are also the major themes of this book Chatterji's first book Bengal Divided shifted the focus from Muslim fanaticism as the driving force of Partition towards secular nationalism and Hindu aggression Her Spoils of Partition rejected the idea of Partition as a breaking apart showing it to be a process in the remaking of society and state Her third book Bengal Diaspora cowritten with Claire Alexander and Annu Jalais challenged the idea of migration and resettlement as exceptional situations Partition s Legacies can be seen as continuous with Chatterji s earlier work as well as a distillation and expansion of it Chatterji is known for the elegance of her prose as much as for the sharpness of her insights into Indian history and Partition's Legacies will enthrall everyone interested in modern India's apocalyptic past What emerges from the essays David Washbrook writes in the introduction is often guite startling The demarcation of Partition followed no master plan or even coherent strategy but was made up of myriad ad hoc decisions taken on the ground often by obscure actors Refugee policy immigrant rights and even definitions of national citizenship were produced by no deus ex machina but out of day to day struggles on the streets and in the courts Bibliography of Asian Studies ,1994 Guide to Indian Accessions List, South Asia Library of Congress.
