Women and Their Gardens Catherine Horwood,2012-04 From the golden age in English history to today s gardeners and designers this volume recognizes women's contributions to gardening in Britain and around the world spanning more than four centuries. Despite growing vegetables for their kitchens, tending herbs for their medicine cupboards and teaching other women about the craft before agricultural schools officially existed, women have been mere footnotes in the horticultural annals for specimens collected abroad. These pioneers' influence on the style of gardens in the present day is illustrated here in a style both accessible and scholarly. Presenting a rare bouquet, this collection shares the stories of more than 200 women who have been involved with garden design, plant collecting, flower arranging, botanical art, garden writing and education.

Design Objects and the Museum Liz Farrelly, Joanna Weddell, 2016-01-28. Design Objects and the Museum brings together leading design historians, curators, educators and archivists to consider the place of contemporary design objects within museums. Contributors draw on a wide range of 20th century and contemporary examples from international museums to consider how design objects have been curated and displayed within and beyond the museum. The book continues contemporary global debates on the ways in which museums of design engage and educate their public. Chapters are grouped into three thematic sections addressing The Canon and Design in the Museum, Positioning Design within and Beyond the Museum and Interpretation and the Challenge of Design, with chapters exploring museological practice and issues, the roles people play in creating meaning and the challenges contemporary design presents to interpretation and learning within the museum.
