The Contemporary Muslim Movement in the Philippines Cesar Adib Majul, 1985 The Contemporary Muslim Movement in the Philippines Cesar Adib Majul, 1985-01-01 Shapers of Islam in Southeast Asia Syed Muhd. Khairudin Aljunied, Khairudin Aljunied, 2022 Shapers of Islam in Southeast Asia captures the progressive and pluralistic nature of Islamic reformism in Southeast Asia from the mid twentieth century onwards a period that can now be regarded as the age of networked Islam The book shows how several influential Muslim intellectuals have given rise to an Islamic reformist mosaic in Southeast Asia The Internationalization of Internal Conflicts Amy L. Freedman, 2016-04-29 Internal security crises from environmental disaster extreme poverty and deprivation armed conflicts or ethnic or religious conflict provide sites of opportunity for those seeking to internationalize conflicts Domestic conflicts in Africa the Middle East and Southeast Asia have started as internal problems but have taken on regional and international dimensions as parties to the conflict within the country and sympathetic external forces have joined forces with each other for mutual gain This book examines the international dimension to internal conflicts and asks under what conditions do domestic conflicts become opportunities for regional or global actors to become involved Why have some countries been able to successfully deal with this problem while others have not Who are the actors who seek to internationalize conflicts Why and with what means do they become involved and how do their agendas get internalized localized Cases include the separatist movements in the Philippines Southern Thailand Aceh Indonesia and the civil wars in Rwanda Congo and Sierra Leone Liberia Lebanon and Iraq This book finds that a combination of greater democratization internally coupled with constructive outside mediation efforts can produce conditions necessary to prevent conflicts from escalating or diffusing and can facilitate peace building Several chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Asian Security A Modern History of the Islamic World Reinhard Schulze, 2002-03 Considering the Islamic world from Morocco to Indonesia Somalia and Bosnia Schulze Islamic studies U of Berne charts their histories during the 20th century Rather than taking each one in turn he narrates chronologically the political changes throughout the world where Islam is the dominant cultural force He begins with the impact of colonialism and ends with struggle between Islamic culture and civil society in the 1990s He includes several maps Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Religion & Identity Politics: Global Trends And Local Realities Mathews Mathew, Melvin Tay, 2021-06-18 Discourse on fundamentalism has gained much attention in recent years particularly in a post 9 11 context where extremist or terrorist threats are more prominent perilous and pervasive This edited volume seeks to spotlight the perspectives of academics and practitioners vis vis global trends in religious fundamentalism and right wing extremism over the past decade It presents a collection of works from notable academics and practitioners including a selection of case studies from Asia to illustrate the contemporary interplay of religion politics and identity alongside broader global trends of religious fundamentalism The chapters that follow attempt to trace the sources and factors that led to the dramatic rise in these powerful forces of faith which influence societies and politics around the world Together they present a carefully curated narrative of the interplay of religion and identity politics globally and across Asia The prevailing differences in demographics history and the extent of ethno religious diversity across country contexts are perused across each chapter and the ensuing circumstances deliberated upon As these circumstances change the ways people interpret their identities engage in politics and navigate their religion will also evolve How we manage the effects of religious fundamentalism must hence begin with an understanding of how religion identity and politics interact and this is what the upcoming chapters seek to illustrate Gangsters, Democracy, and the State in Southeast Asia Carl A.

Trocki,2018-05-31 An essay collection that studies workaday regional politics in Southeast Asia and its implications for evolving democracies The contributors examine the electoral process conflicts between central and local governments conflicts between individual freedoms and state power and the roles charismatic opportunistic strongmen have played in Southeast Asian politics most notably in Thailand Burma and the Philippines Ottoman-Southeast Asian Relations (2 vols.) Ismail Hakki Kadi,A.C.S. Peacock,2019-11-04 Ottoman Southeast Asian Relations Sources from the Ottoman Archives is a product of meticulous study of smail Hakk Kad A C S Peacock and other contributors on historical documents from the Ottoman archives The work contains documents in Ottoman Turkish Malay Arabic French English Tausug Burmese and Thai languages each introduced by an expert in the language and history of the related country The work contains documents hitherto unknown to historians as well as others that have been unearthed before but remained confined to the use of limited scholars who had access to the Ottoman archives The resources published in this study show that the Ottoman Empire was an active actor within the context of Southeast Asian experience with Western colonialism The fact that the extensive literature on this experience made limited use of Ottoman source materials indicates the crucial importance of this publication for future innovative research in the field Contributors are Giancarlo Casale Annabel Teh Gallop R fat G nalan Patricia Herbert Jana Igunma Midori Kawashima Abraham Sakili and Michael Talbot Crisis in the Philippines John prompted warnings of an imminent clash of civilizations between Islam and the West Islam in an Era of Nation States examines the history politics and meanings of this resurgence in Indonesia Malaysia and the Philippines and explores its implications for Southeast Asia the larger Muslim world and the West This volume will be of interest to students of Islam Southeast Asian history and the anthropology of religion In examining the politics and meanings of Islamic resurgence it will also speak to political scientists religious scholars and others concerned with culture and politics in the late modern era

Government Policies and Ethnic Relations in Asia and the Pacific Michael E. Brown, Sumit Ganguly, 1997-10-20 Efforts to contend with tensions inherent in multiethnic societies case studies of India Pakistan Sri Lanka Burma Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia the Philippines China Australia New Zealand Papua New Guinea Fiji Vanuatu and the Federated States of Micronesia Ethnic conflict one of the most serious and widespread problems in the world today can undermine efforts to promote political and economic development as well as political economic and social justice It can also lead to violence and open warfare producing horrifying levels of death and destruction Although government policies on ethnic issues often have profound effects on a country the subject has been neglected by most scholars and analysts This volume analyzes different policies governments have pursued in their efforts to contend with the tensions inherent in multiethnic societies The book focuses on Asia and the Pacific the most populous and economically vibrant part of the world The heart of the book is a set of case studies of government policies in sixteen countries India Pakistan Sri Lanka Burma Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia the Philippines China Australia New Zealand Papua New Guinea Fiji Vanuatu and the Federated States of Micronesia The studies consider a wide range of political economic educational linguistic and cultural policies and how these policies have evolved over time Using a broad comparative perspective to assess the effectiveness of different governmental approaches the authors offer policy recommendations that cut across individual countries and regions

Sociological Perspectives on Media Piracy in the Philippines and Vietnam Vivencio O. Ballano, 2015-12-26 This book addresses the persistence of the optical media piracy trade in the Philippines and Vietnam It goes beyond arguments of defective law enforcement and copyright legal systems by applying sociological perspectives to examine the socio economic forces behind the advent of piracy in the region Using documentary and ethnographic data in addition to resistance and ecological theories in sociology of law and technology as the overall theoretical framework the book investigates factors that contribute to this phenomenon and factors that impede the full formalization of the optical media trade in the two countries These factors include the government's attitude towards the informal sector and strong resistance to tougher IPR protection unstable and sometimes conflicting policies on technologies burdensome business registration process and weak enforcement of business regulations bureaucratic corruption and loopholes in law enforcement system as well as trade ties with China In addition to that the book highlights the social background of the actors behind the illegal business of counterfeit CDs and DVDs thereby explaining the reasons they continue to persist in this type of trade It invites policymakers law enforcers advocates of anti piracy groups and the general public to use a more holistic lens in understanding the persistence of copyright piracy in developing countries shifting the blame from the moral defect of the traders to the current problematic copyright policy and enforcement structure and the difficulty of crafting effective anti piracy measures in a constantly evolving and advancing technological environment

Transforming Violent Political Movements Kevin E. Grisham, 2014-03-21 This book explores the factors that influence violent rebellious political organisations to transform into other entities such as political parties criminal organisations and terrorist organisations From the end of the Second World War until 1990 many events in the world centred on the bipolar struggle between the United States and the USSR Although there were numerous civil wars occurring during the Cold War era many of these conflicts went virtually unnoticed unless they were linked to the Cold War struggle for ideological dominance In the aftermath of the fall of the Soviet Union the number of intra state conflicts was prevalent around the globe Along with the occurrence of civil wars a variety of violent political movements also developed Examining cases from Latin America Africa Europe and Asia this book addresses how violent political movements transform during and after conflict into new types of organisations using the collective political violence transformative CPVT model The study uses a combination of pre existing literature from the fields of sociology and political science archival research and interviews with movement members former and active conducted by the author In studying the Provisional IRA and Sinn Féin in the Spear of the Nation MK and the African National Congress ANC the Abu Sayyaf Group and the Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia FARC EP Transforming Violent Political Movements paints a picture of organisations that have to respond to their environments to survive This book will be of much interest to students of political violence terrorism war and conflict studies security studies and IR

A Soldier and a Woman Gerard J. De Groot, C Peniston-Bird, 2014-07-30 The question of women's role in the military is extremely topical A Woman and a Soldier covers the experiences of women in the military from the late mediaeval period to the present day Written in two volumes this comprehensive guide covers a wide range of wars The Thirty Years War the French and Indian Wars in Northern America the Anglo Boer War the First and Second World Wars the Long March in China and the Vietnam War There are also thematic chapters including studies of terrorism and contemporary military service Taking a multidisciplinary approach historical anthropological and cultural the book shows the variety of arguments used to support or deny women's military service and the combat taboo In the process the book challenges preconceived notions about women's integration in the military and builds a picture of the ideological and practical issues surrounding women soldiers

A Muslim Archipelago Max L. Gross, 2007 This book is with a contemporary focus Author Dr Max Gross's purpose is to use history to explain today's Islamic insurgencies in Indonesia Malaysia Thailand and the Philippines and to offer perspectives for the future Muslim Archipelago's unique contribution is that it brings together in one reference a mass of information on the insurgencies in Southeast Asia. The country accounts are detailed and thorough as to events organizations dates and participants. The chronological context provides Dr. Gross the opportunity to give insights about historical casualty. His accounting highlights the interaction of the insurgencies within Southeast Asia and their international connection outside the region. The detailed presentations in the chapters on Indonesia and Philippines are especially fruitful. Included in this nearly 280 page book are detailed four color regional maps charts and historical photos spread throughout the text. An extensive bibliography and index are included.

Peace as a Global Language Hugh Palmer, 2016-07-22 This book is comprised of a collection of essays compiled by presenters who attended the annual Peace as a Global Language Conference at Rikkyo University in 2013 which took as its theme Peace and Welfare in the Local and Global Community. From civil and community conflict media literacy and music to middle east peacemaking there is something here for all scholars and educators with an interest in peace studies and education.

Religion and Conflict in South and Southeast Asia Linell E. Cady, Sheldon W. Simon, 2006-09-27 A major new contribution to comparative and multidisciplinary scholarship on the alignment of religion and violence in the contemporary world with a special focus on South and Southeast Asia. Religion and Conflict in South and Southeast Asia shows how this region is the site of recent and emerging democracies a high degree of religious pluralism the largest Muslim populations in the world and several well organized terrorist groups making understanding of the dynamics of religious conflict and violence particularly urgent. By bringing scholars from religious studies political science sociology anthropology and international relations into conversation with each other this volume brings much needed attention to the role of religion in fostering violence in the region and addresses strategies for its containment or resolution. The dearth of other literature on the intersection of religion politics and violence in contemporary South and Southeast Asia makes the timing of this book particularly relevant. This book will be of great interest to advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students of Asian politics security studies and conflict studies.

Muslim Rulers and Rebels Thomas M. McKenna, 2023-09-01 In this first ground level account of the Muslim separatist rebellion in the Philippines Thomas McKenna challenges prevailing anthropological analyses of nationalism as well as their underlying assumptions about the interplay of culture and power. He examines Muslim separatism against a background of more than four hundred years of political relations among indigenous Muslim rulers their subjects and external powers seeking the subjugation of Philippine Muslims. He also explores the motivations of the ordinary men and women who fight in armed separatist struggles and investigates the formation of nationalist identities. A skillful meld of historical detail and ethnographic research Muslim Rulers and Rebels makes a compelling contribution to the study of protest rebellion and revolution worldwide In this first ground level account of the Muslim separatist rebellion in the Philippines Thomas McKenna challenges prevailing anthropological analyses of nationalism as well as their underlying assumptions about the interplay of culture and power He exa
