

Introduction to the

the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, clearly reveals that God Himself is the author, source, supervisor, and sum of all history, and that the center and goal of history is found in Jesus Christ, God's Son (Col. 1:15-20). Thus the Bible, while in one sense a library of sacred Scriptures, is one story, of which the Old Testament is the first part, and the New Testament the second part.

Through Jewish and Christian revelation, the Old Testament is the source of the books of the Old Testament, the designations used in this connection for the New Testament revelation.

On subject matter: Pentateuch (Genesis—Deuteronomy), Historical Books (Joshua—Judges), Poetical Books (Job—Song of Solomon, Lamentations—Ezra—Nehemiah), and Minor Prophets (Hosea—Malachi).

This belief is confirmed by Jesus Himself.
