55 Years of Struggle for Women's Ordination in the Catholic Church Ida Raming, 2021-11-30 55 years of struggle for women's ordination in the Roman Catholic Church this lifelong effort by the theologian Ida Raming together with her pioneering compatriots some of whom have passed away are described in this documentation She is deeply convinced that a fundamental renewal of the church can only be achieved together with women who are no longer subject to discrimination and not without them Beginning with the Vatican Council 1962-1965 this endeavor has stretched across several phases of church history all the way into the present Numerous documents bearing witness to internal church developments conflicts and international movements are related in a vivid gripping manner from the perspective of the author The international Women Priests Movement RCWP ARCWP its inception and development is also described in this context This documentation offers an excellent aid in studying the epoch of church history dating from 1962

Systematic Theology, Volume 2, Second Edition James Leo Garrett, 2014-09-14 Rivals the major systematic theologies of this century Baptist History and Heritage Journal July 1996 One of the characteristics of Garrett's system that needs especially to be noted is its balanced judicious and nearly invariably objective presentation of materials While holding true to the teachings of his own Baptist faith Garrett so carefully and judiciously presents alternatives that teachers and students from other confessional and denominational positions will find his work instructive Consensus 1997 If one is searching for an extensive exposition of the biblical foundations and historical developments of the various loci of systematic theology there is no more complete presentation in a relatively short work than this Pastors will especially find this feature to be a real help in teaching theology It is an indispensable contribution to the task of systematic theology Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society September 1999 Many students and pastors will find all they need here and will in addition be helped to relate their knowledge to recent developments in the theological world The Churchman A Journal of Anglican Theology 1991 A gold mine of helpful material The Christian Century May 29
