The Captive Nations Eastern Europe 1945 1990:

The Captive Nations Patrick Brogan, 1990 The Captive Nations Patrick Brogan, 1990 Visions of the End of the Cold War in Europe, 1945-1990 Frédéric Bozo, Marie-Pierre Rey, N. Piers Ludlow, Bernd Rother, 2012-03-01 Exploring the visions of the end of the Cold War that have been put forth since its inception until its actual ending this volume brings to the fore the reflections programmes and strategies that were intended to call into question the bipolar system and replace it with alternative approaches or concepts These visions were associated not only with prominent individuals organized groups and civil societies but were also connected to specific historical processes or events They ranged from actual thoroughly conceived programmes to more blurred utopian aspirations or simply the belief that the Cold War had already in effect come to an end Such visions reveal much about the contexts in which they were developed and shed light on crucial moments and phases of the Cold War Voice of the Silenced Peoples in the Global Cold War Anna Mazurkiewicz, 2020-12-16 According to its members exiled political leaders from nine east European countries the ACEN was an umbrella organization a quasi East European parliament in exile composed of formerly prominent statesmen who strove to maintain the case of liberation of Eastern Europe from the Soviet yoke on the agenda of international relations Founded by the Free Europe Committee from 1954 to 1971 the ACEN tried to lobby for Eastern European interests on the U S political scene in the United Nations and the Council of Europe Furthermore its activities can be traced to Latin America Asia and the Middle East However since it was founded and sponsored by the Free Europe Committee most commonly recognized as the sponsor of the Radio Free Europe the ACEN operations were obviously influenced and monitored by the Americans CIA Department of State This book argues that despite the migr leadership s self restraint in expressing criticism of the U S foreign policy the ACEN was vulnerable to and eventually fell victim of the changes in the American Cold War policies Notwithstanding the termination of Free Europe s support ACEN members reconstituted their operations in 1972 and continued their actions until 1989 Based on a through archival research twenty different archives in the U S and Europe interviews published documents memoirs press this book is a first complete story of an organization that is quite often mentioned in publications related to the operations of the Free Europe Committee but hardly ever thoroughly studied Educational Freedom in Eastern Europe Charles Leslie Glenn, 1994 Eastern Europe Bibliography, 1993 A selective work that documents the formative impact of the region s earlier history Includes reference aids and bibliographies general and descriptive histories of the land peoples and economies and works depicting intellectual and cultural life Eastern Europe, 1986-1993 Robert H. Burger, Helen F. Sullivan, 1995-12-15 Describing approximately 1 000 books published between 1986 and late 1993 this work provides readers with a selective guide to English language publications on the subject of Eastern Europe It covers general studies of the area as well as works on the individual countries of Albania Bulgaria the former Czechoslovakia the former German Democratic Republic East Germany Hungary Poland Romania and the former Yugoslavia In addition to bibliographic and descriptive information the authors also include citations to book reviews A companion to their Russia and the Former Soviet Union Libraries Unlimited 1994 this volume also focuses on the social sciences and the humanities As interest about this part of the world continues to build and English language publications about it proliferate Burger and Sullivan s guide is a pertinent addition to academic and public library collections Global Century Series One World Divisible David Reynolds,2001-03-06 A magisterial account of our time by a distinguished historian Walter LaFeber author of The Clash This brilliant history vividly captures the great political events of the past 50 years while carefully avoiding an encyclopedia approach of illustrations Hunting the Tiger Christopher S. Stewart,2008-01-08 A gripping investigation into the extraordinary career of Serbia s legendary warlord Zeljko Arkan Raznatovic began his life as a petty criminal a juvenile delinquent adrift in the floundering state of Yugoslavia He would eventually become famous throughout Western Europe as the smiling bank robber as a Houdini like fugitive from multiple prisons and even as a state sponsored assassin Stories of motorboat robberies and daylight bank heists would follow him from country to country Yet however impressive his criminal reputation seemed at first it was only the beginning of his path to infamy Following Yugoslavia s chaotic descent into madness in the 1990s Arkan would become not only a gangster but one of Serbian President Slobodan Milosevic s most valued henchmen in the country s civil war He rallied Belgrade s notoriously violent soccer hooligans paired them with inmates from Serbia s prisons among other brutal street thugs and trained them to become his ruthless foot soldiers known as the Tigers During the war the men rampaged through Croatia and Bosnia killing raping burning and looting As they earned a reputation as Serbia s most feared death squad accused of genocide by The Hague tribunal Arkan became one of the region s wealthiest men A national hero he married the country s greatest pop star the so called Madonna of the Balkans in a ceremony that was compared to that of Prince Charles and Princess Diana His fame and good fortune however could not last In 1999 as NATO bombs fell on Belgrade The Hague s International War Crimes Tribunal indicted Arkan for crimes against humanity the United States called for his arrest the world media chased him and mobster rivals wanted him dead His days were numbered and just after the Serbian New Year he was shockingly assassinated in the crowded lobby of a high profile Belgrade hotel In Hunting the Tiger journalist Christopher S Stewart tells the spectacular bloody and often nebulous story of a man who was equal parts James Bond James Dean Billy the Kid and Al Capone In a region still in the throes of sectarian conflict and wracked by the aftermath of decades of violence Stewart gives us an engaging first person look at one man who became a symbol of an intensely combustible and illicit age and who played both villain and hero at a profound historical moment Barbarism and Civilization Bernard Wasserstein,2007 The twentieth century in Europe witnessed some of the most brutish episodes in history Yet it also saw incontestable improvements in the conditions of existence for most inhabitants of the continent from rising living standards and dramatically increased life expectancy to the virtual elimination of illiteracy and the advance of women ethnic minorities and homosexuals to greater equality of respect and opportunity It was a century of barbarism and civilization of cruelty and tenderness of technological achievement and environmental spoliation of imperial expansion and withdrawal of authoritarian repression and of individualism resurgent Covering everything from war and politics to social cultural and economic change Barbarism and Civilization is by turns grim humorous surprising and enlightening a window on the century we have left behind and the earliest years of its troubled successor
