Walsh, 2013-04-04 In this innovative resource Thomas P Walsh has compiled a unique collection of some 1 400 published and unpublished American musical compositions related to the Philippines during the American colonial era from 1898 to 1946 For the guide Walsh surveyed a wide array of sources published songs listed in WorldCat online catalogs of sheet music collections of university libraries and major public and private research libraries bibliographic compilations of popular music periodical literature on music and popular culture published collections of soldier songs and sheet music listed for sale on commercial auction websites The guide also identifies from song registrations in the U S Copyright Office s Catalog of Copyright Entries CCE forty eight years of musical compositions relating to the Philippines By systematically going through the CCE year by year Walsh discovered hundreds of unpublished songs written by average Americans expressing their varied views about historical events and personal experiences in America s faraway Southeast Asian colony Although most of the chronologically listed songs will be new to scholars and students songs like Ma Little Cebu Maid My Own Manila Sue My Fillipino Belle Down on the Philippine Isles Beside the Pasig River My Philippino Pearl and I Want a Filipino Man were all published and widely promoted by Tin Pan Alley as well as performed on stage and listened to on records and piano rolls across America The lyrics often illustrate popular American attitudes from shrilly patriotic numbers about the Battle of Manila Bay and the later Fall of Bataan and Corregidor to wistful romantic and even charming reminiscences of happy days spent in old Manila to racially charged pieces rife with deprecating stereotypes of Filipinos The book reprints a number of hard to find song lyrics making them available to readers for the first time in more than a century It also provides copyright registration numbers and dates of registration for many published and unpublished songs Finally more than 700 notes on particular songs and numerous links provide direct access to bibliographic records or digital copies of sheet music in libraries and collections Exhaustive in scope Tin Pan Alley and the Philippines is an invaluable resource for scholars and students of American history Pacific studies popular culture and ethnomusicology The Great White Way Warren Hoffman, 2020-02-14 Broadway musicals are one of America s most beloved art forms and play to millions of people each year But what do these shows which are often thought to be just frothy entertainment really have to say about our country and who we are as a nation Now in a new second edition The Great White Way is the first book to reveal the racial politics content and subtexts that have haunted musicals for almost one hundred years from Show Boat 1927 to Hamilton 2015 This revised edition includes a new introduction and conclusion updated chapters as well as a brand new chapter that looks at the blockbuster musicals The Book of Mormon and Hamilton Musical mirror their time periods and reflect the political and social issues of their day Warren Hoffman investigates the thematic content of the Broadway musical and considers how musicals work on a structural level allowing them to simultaneously present and hide their racial agendas in plain view of their audiences While the musical is informed by the cultural contributions of African Americans and Jewish immigrants Hoffman argues that ultimately the history of the American musical is the history of white identity in the United States Presented chronologically The Great White Way shows how perceptions of race altered over time and how musicals dealt with those changes Hoffman focuses first on shows leading up to and comprising the Golden Age of Broadway 1927 1960s then turns his attention to the revivals and nostalgic vehicles that defined the final quarter of the twentieth century He offers entirely new and surprising takes on shows from the American musical canon Show Boat 1927 Oklahoma 1943 Annie Get Your Gun 1946 The Music Man 1957 West Side Story 1957 A Chorus Line 1975 and 42nd Street 1980 among others In addition to a new chapter on Hamilton and The Book of Mormon this revised edition brings The Great White Way fully into the twenty first century with an examination of jukebox musicals and the role of off Broadway and regional theaters in the development of the American musical New archival research on the creators who produced and wrote these shows including Leonard Bernstein Jerome Robbins Stephen Sondheim and Edward Kleban will have theater fans and scholars rethinking forever how they view this popular American entertainment
