Transatlantic Avant-Gardes Eric B White, 2013-03-01 Provides an alternative account of the modernist transatlantic Transatlantic Avant Gardes offers a revisionary account of the evolution of twentieth century modernism Complimenting recent studies of modernist expatriates Eric White explores new points of contact between European and American avant gardes to place located figures such as William Carlos Williams Marianne Moore Wallace Stevens Jean Toomer and Alfred Kreyenborg back into the global design of literary modernism Focusing on artist run little magazines including Others Contact The Little Review Blast The Dial Fire and Pagany and selected fine press publications and mainstream periodicals White also reconsiders the boundaries that traditionally divide modernist literature into exile and localist or regionalist and cosmopolitan factions Thus the book proposes a version of localist modernism that prioritises issues of geographic and textual location to deliver a networked approach to American modernism in the transatlantic context Combining literary historical textual and cultural criticism Transatlantic Avant Gardes provides a new reading of the specialised literary networks that interrogated the relationship between geographic place textual space and national identity in the modernist transatlantic A Life of Picasso Volume II John Richardson, 2011-09-30 John Richardson draws on the same combination of lively writing critical astuteness exhaustive research and personal experience which made a bestseller out of the first volume and vividly recreates the artist's life and work during the crucial decade of 1907-17 a period during which Pablo Picasso and Georges Braque invented Cubism and to that extent engendered modernism Richardson has had unique access to untapped sources and unpublished material By harnessing biography to art history he has managed to crack the code of cubism more successfully than any of his predecessors And by bringing a fresh light to bear on the artist's often too sensationalised private life he has succeeded in coming up with a totally new view of this paradoxical man of his paradoxical work Never before has Picasso's prodigious technique his incisive vision and not least his sardonic humour been analysed with such clarity Dada in the Collection of the Museum of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), Anne Umland, Adrian Sudhalter, 2008 Presents some seventy works books collages drawings films paintings photographs photomontages prints readymades reliefs in large scale reproductions and accompanying them with in depth essays by an interdepartmental group of the Museum's curators Front jacket flap Scandalous Times Alex Ling, 2020-10-15 We live in scandalous times Every day some new controversy demands our attention our emotional investment and ultimately our judgment Many of these routine transgressions will be understood in revelatory terms as peeling back the multiple layers of artifice and spin to reveal an underlying and oftentimes disturbing truth Others will be recognized as calculated marketing exercises that simply present the strategic face of contemporary capitalism Yet these ordinary scandals can themselves be seen to be largely derivative of another altogether more fundamental and fundamentally rare form of disruption Such is the real scandal that accompanies instances of authentic creation Building on the philosophy of Alain Badiou Scandalous Times not only argues the case for such real scandal but also shows how it is today being abrogated and substituted through the increasing production of novel forms of state sanctioned controversy From Duchamp to Donald Trump Scandalous Times explores the ways in which areas from art and advertising to politics and social media have come to actively contribute to this static fabrication of controversy all the while arguing for the need to rethink creativity as a radical exception to the state and not its proxy Art, Cybernetics and Pedagogy in Post-War Britain Kate Sloan, 2019-02-14 This is the first full length study about the British artist Roy Ascott one of the first cybernetic artists with a career spanning seven decades to date The book focuses on his early career exploring the evolution of his early interests in communication in the context of the rich overlaps between art science and engineering in Britain during the 1950s and 1960s The first part of the book looks at Ascott's training and early work The second part looks solely at Groundcourse Ascott's extraordinary pedagogical model for visual arts and cybernetics which used an integrative and systems based model drawing in behaviourism analogue machines performance and games Using hitherto unpublished photographs and documents this book will establish a more prominent place for cybernetics in post war British art Emancipating the Many Wolfgang Fiel, 2016-02-08 This book begins from the assumption that we have entered an era where the concept of political representation is seriously compromised Eschewing the flawed promise of acting for the common good or in accordance with the general will of an homogenous body politic it delves into the process of individuation the diverse reality of individuals and communities alike in order to elucidate contemporary experience as relational phenomena of networked human and non human actors Clearly this task is ambitious for it must bridge the gap between the needs aspirations emotions and anxieties of individuals on the one hand and the desired emergence of collective co operation on the other Now that we have entered an age where the irresistible rise of global mega cities and big data appear to determine the outlook for generations to come it is more pertinent than ever to challenge the technological promise of a future where numbers speak for themselves The full blown heterogeneity of the multitude thrives on the general intellect and the activity of the speaker To act is to start anew and to intervene in the circulation of empty signifiers upon which we are called to assign the name of an event Emancipating the Many therefore is a book about difference marked as intervention an emergent constitution of time The Unsilvered Screen Graeme Harper, Rob Stone, 2007 Critics from the UK US Australia Canada and Japan discuss views on canonical surrealist works and the role of surrealism in modern cinema animation digital cinema and documentary
