Flexible Agents in Integrated Network and Systems Management Maria-Athina Mountzia,1997   The Heart of War Gwyn Prins,2003-08-29 Military forces are now confronted not only with the non conventional threats of terrorism but the moral dilemmas of humanitarianism intervention and human rights Gwyn Prins explores these conflicting impulses using a variety of fascinating examples the September 11th attacks and the history of spectacular terrorism humanitarian intervention in Bosnia Kosovo West Africa and elsewhere the extradition of General Pinochet for human rights abuses and the nuclear issue in the light of ongoing conflict between India and Pakistan Wide ranging and challenging this book will interest all those seeking to understand the enormous recent changes in military strategy and global politics   Reload Mary Flanagan,Austin Booth,2002-05-03 An anthology of feminist cyberfiction and theoretical and critical writings on gender and technoculture Most writing on cyberspace is dominated by two almost mutually exclusive visions the heroic image of the male outlaw hacker and the utopian myth of a gender free cyberworld Reload offers an alternative picture of cyberspace as a complex and contradictory place where there is oppression as well as liberation It shows how cyberpunk's revolutionary claims conceal its ultimate conservatism on matters of class gender and race The cyberfeminists writing here view cyberspace as a social experiment with an as yet unfulfilled potential to create new identities relationships and cultures The book brings together women's cyberfiction fiction that explores the relationship between people and virtual technologies and feminist theoretical and critical investigations of gender and technoculture

From a variety of viewpoints the writers consider the effects of rapid and profound technological change on culture in particular both the revolutionary and reactionary effects of cyberspace on women's lives. They also explore the feminist implications of the cyborg as a human-machine hybrid. The writers challenge the conceptual and institutional rifts between high and low culture which are embedded in the texts and artifacts of cyberspace.
