The Of Kimono The Complete Guide To Style And Wear:

The Social Life of Kimono Sheila Cliffe, 2017-03-23 The kimono is an iconic garment with a history as rich and colourful as the textiles from which it is crafted Deeply associated with Japanese culture both past and present it has often been thought of as a highly gendered rigidly traditional and unchanging national costume This book challenges that perception revealing the nuanced meanings and messages behind the kimono from the point of view of its wearers and producers many of whom both men and women see the garment as a vehicle for self expression Taking a material culture approach The Social Life of Kimono is the first study to combine the history of the kimono as a fashionable garment with an in depth exploration of its multifaceted role today on both the street and the catwalk Through case studies covering historical advertising campaigns fashion magazines interviews with contemporary kimono designers large scale and small craft producers and consumers who choose to wear them The Social Life of Kimono gives a unique insight into making and meaning of this complex garment

The Grace of Four Moons Pravina Shukla, 2015-10-16 Because clothing food and shelter are basic human needs they provide excellent entries to cultural values and individual aesthetics Everyone gets dressed every day but body art has not received the attention it deserves as the most common and universal of material expressions of culture The Grace of Four Moons aims to document the clothing decisions made by ordinary people in their everyday lives Based on fieldwork conducted primarily in the city of Banaras India Pravina Shukla conceptualizes and realizes a total model for the study of body art understood as all aesthetic modifications and supplementations to the body Shukla urges the study of the entire process of body art from the assembly of raw materials and the manufacture of objects through their sale and the interactions between merchants and consumers to the consumer's use of objects in creating personal decoration
