The Oxford History of Life-Writing: Volume 1. The Middle Ages Karen A. Winstead, 2018-04-06 The Oxford History of Life Writing Volume 1 The Middle Ages explores the richness and variety of life writing from late Antiquity to the threshold of the Renaissance During the Middle Ages writers from Bede to Chaucer were thinking about life and experimenting with ways to translate lives their own and others into literature Their subjects included career religious saints celebrities visionaries pilgrims princes philosophers poets and even a few ordinary people They relay life stories not only in chronological narratives but also in debates dialogues visions and letters Many medieval biographers relied on the reader s trust in their authority but some espoused standards of evidence that seem distinctly modern drawing on reliable written sources interviewing eyewitnesses and cross checking their facts wherever possible Others still professed allegiance to evidence but nonetheless freely embellished and invented not only events and dialogue but the sources to support them The first book devoted to life writing in medieval England The Oxford History of Life Writing Volume 1 The Middle Ages covers major life stories in Old and Middle English Latin and French along with such Continental classics as the letters of Abelard and Heloise and the autobiographical Vision of Christine de Pizan In addition to the life stories of historical figures it treats accounts of fictional heroes from Beowulf to King Arthur to Queen Katherine of Alexandria which show medieval authors experimenting with adapting and expanding the conventions of life writing Though Medieval life writings can be challenging to read we encounter in them the antecedents of many of our own diverse biographical forms tabloid lives literary lives brief lives revisionist lives lives of political figures memoirs fictional lives and psychologically oriented accounts that register the inner lives of their subjects The History of the Black Watch (Royal Highland Regiment) of Canada: Volume 1, 1759-1939 Roman Johann Jarymowycz, 2023-05-15 In three volumes spanning centuries Lieutenant Colonel Roman Jarymowycz recounts the story of the Black Watch Royal Highland Regiment of Canada the oldest Highland regiment in the country He traces its history from the roots when soldiers settlers and militia volunteers rallied to defend the southern borders of their adopted country against invasion from the United States Drawing on diaries letters classified documents and the regimental archive Jarymowycz weaves the strands of a complex story into an epic narrative of a resolute collective of officers and men Since its birth in 1862 as the 5th Battalion Volunteer Militia Rifles of Canada thousands of citizens have served in the unit In addition to securing Canada's borders Black Watch soldiers have fought in the South African War both world wars and the Korean War They have bolstered NATO operations and United Nations peacekeeping missions and they provided aid to the civil power during the 1997 Quebec and Eastern Ontario ice storm disaster and the COVID 19 pandemic The Montreal based battalion continues to serve Canada in its traditional role as a reserve infantry unit and to this day Black Watch soldiers frequently deploy on dangerous missions abroad In volume 1 readers will learn of the Black Watch's origins its first foreign enterprise the South African War and a detailed account of the Great War where the regiment evolved from the 5th Royal Highlanders to become the Canadian Black Watch as they were known throughout the empire The Montreal regiment trained four battalions for overseas duty three of which participated in the greatest battles of the First World War an unprecedented accomplishment This volume not only offers a critical analysis of campaigns key actions and tactical evolution but also includes an intimate and compelling account of the sacrifices that forged this extraordinary regiment This monumental history of Canada's oldest Highland regiment is at once a record of Scottish heritage a portrait of Montreal rising as an industrial giant and an examination of the emergence of a military culture from the Western Front Domineering Female State Advisor Shua ErLang, 2020-05-15 She's just a special forces soldier how can she play in a palace fight Other than on the battlefield what else is suitable for her Your Highness she she she she Wash wash and bathe by the well Is this even a woman The face of a certain prince turned ashen He was about to explode with anger for the first time Yet she could only smile wryly There was nothing she could do about it Who asked her to be like this Dongfang Ning had transmigrated to the war torn Mountain Sea Continent In this chaotic era he had experienced countless difficulties from an orphan girl to an Imperial Advisor With her modern medical skills and the latest technology from the future she displayed all kinds of encounters that nothing is that simple The real king is trapped in the Fade and Cara s journey is just beginning Guilt ridden by the fact Brendan s soul was sacrificed for hers she s determined not to desert him after his one pure act of goodness Time is running out even if she makes it past all of the dangers of the Darkside a shade might await her in the Fade Running from enemy and friends alike she sets out on a path that will lead headfirst into danger Even if Cara makes it to the Fade even if a goddess watches over her she doesn t trust all of her companions she still has to find a way home and freeing Brendan could cause a war between the faeries she cares about And all the while Chaos grows unchecked Queen Three kings Two queens One heir Chaos will rule
