RSS, School Texts and the Murder of Mahatma Gandhi Aditya Mukherjee,Mridula Mukherjee,Sucheta Mahajan,2008-06 RSS School Texts and the Murder of Mahatma Gandhi undertakes the novel experiment of juxtaposing three apparently quite different issues the nature of the RSS school textbooks the murder of the Mahatma and the basic ideology of Savarkar and Golwalkar While deeply delving into all three aspects it brings out the deep connection between them The book which brings out the basic ideological underpinnings of the Hindu Communal Project is divided into three parts Part I discusses how this ideology is propagated among young impressionable minds through school textbooks Part II studies the role of the Sangh combine in the murder of Mahatma Gandhi and Part III analyses the basic elements of the Hindu communal ideology as propounded by some of its founders like Savarkar and Golwalkar The book brings home to us in a dramatic manner the great threat communalism poses to our society thus making it a must read for the general educated reader including politicians political workers social activists and journalists

A Vast Minority Stuart Murray,2015-09-01 During the past century the advance of secularism the growth of other religious communities and the decline of the churches have combined to reduce the size and influence of the Christian community Christians are now members of a minority religious community in a plural society How is this diminished status to be understood in a global and historical context within the purposes of God What institutional changes are required What psychological and emotional adjustments are needed in communities that have a corporate memory of majority status privilege and influence What hopes and expectations should be encouraged What strategies should be adopted A Vast Minority explores the challenges and opportunities we face Publisher

Non-Muslims in Muslim Majority Societies - With Focus on the Middle East and Pakistan Kajsa Ahlstrand,Goran Gunner,2009-04-01 In a world where almost all societies are multi religious and multi ethnic we need to study how social cohesion can be achieved in different contexts In some geographical areas as in the Middle East and the Indian subcontinent people of different religious belonging have through the ages lived side by side sometimes in harmony and sometimes in dissonance In other geographical regions as in Scandinavia societies have been quite religiously homogeneous but only recently challenged by immigration The implication in both locations is that the relation between religious minority and majority is on the agenda In order to discuss the situation for Non Muslims in Muslim majority societies a consultation was convened with both Muslim and Christian participants from Pakistan Palestine Lebanon and Sweden Some of the participants work in academic settings others in faith based organizations some in jurisprudence and others with theological issues This book is the result of that consultation the articles are works in progress and they remain tentative The intention with this anthology is to trigger reflection and further thinking It presents articles that discuss issues such as freedom of religion minority rights secular and religious legislation and inter religious dialogue in Muslim majority societies Contributors include Kajsa Ahlstrand G ran Gunner Mustafa Abu Sway Johan G rde Yasmin Haider Jan Hj rpe M Aslam Khaki Bernard Sabella Mehboob Sada Guirguis Ibrahim Saleh and Ahmad Salim This book is the second volume in Church of Sweden Research Series To Make the Wounded Whole Lewis V. Baldwin, To Make the Wounded Whole describes how King s black messianic vision propelled him into fateful encounters with other black leaders the war in Vietnam black theology and world liberation movements A Better Ambition Tim Farron, 2019-09-03 I am passionate about my country and angry at the mendacity that has led to the appalling situation in which the UK and our people are heading for relative poverty and insignificance while our politics is offering bitter unpalatable extremes There has to be something better In the absence of something better we will have to build it Tim Farron Writing with warmth humour and compelling honesty Tim Farron charts his rise to the leadership of the Liberal Democrats from his childhood in Preston to his central role during the Conservative Lib Dem coalition of 2010 15 Farron speaks openly about his role as Party President and the intense experience of leading his party through the 2016 EU referendum and the snap general election of 2017 He also reflects on the scrutiny he received because of his religious beliefs So having reached the top of his career what made him voluntarily relinquish that honour What does Tim Farron s experience mean for those who hold to a liberal vision Are there lessons to be learned about the role of religion in public life And what are the prospects for true liberalism in the UK today Communal Politics Ram Puniyani, 2003-04-25 This lucid and absorbing book explores many facets of communalism and its growing threat to the social fabric of the nation Ram Puniyani argues that one of the main reasons for the ascendancy of communal politics is the misconceptions and distortions spread by those bent upon constructing an identity based on suspicion and hatred These misconceptions or myths as the author calls them are drawn from different arenas such as history and culture and are built upon a partial projection of events and facts combined with a skewed assertion of norms and practices of the other community A mountain of hatred says the author is then built upon these totally selective facts which misinform and mould common perceptions Overall this fascinating book dispels in a novel and logical manner many distortions which have been responsible for arousing communal passions and which have created an external or enemy image of religious minorities and the socially disadvantaged
