Waller, 2012-02 The text before you is an effort by the author to identify the reasons why counseling fails He judged through his experience that too many counselees were simply walking away from counseling They stated there had been no growth or change only dissatisfaction with their life in Christ Thus there seemed to be a missing ingredient Following a study of the principal themes of Proverbs the author became certain about what was lacking He determined that his clients were working without The Fear of the Lord Their approach lacked a sincere reverence for God and few desired to make Him preeminent Thus failure was certain The Fear of the Lord is the means by which wisdom knowledge and understanding is bestowed humility is gained and true charity becomes the practice of the Believer s life Not until one truly makes God preeminent does real biblical change sanctification satisfaction and true joy become possible

Sacred Practices for Conscious Living Nancy J. Napier,2016-06 Now nearly two decades later Napier is ready to share more of her own life story while returning to the subject she was first introduced to by her grandmother As she comes again to the topic that pervades her life story she focuses on several themes including the importance of experiencing a sense of meaning in life the sacred nature of all beings and life itself the belief that everything is an essential part of the full expression of one life both individually and collectively and that we inherently draw from an underlying wholeness the power of what it means to be aware in the present moment and the fact that suffering is part of everyday life and we can learn to move through it Napier explains that once we recognize our place within collective consciousness and focus on compassion and mindfulness we can begin to experience more directly the interdependence and interconnection underlying our place in the universe
