Her parents divorced when she was three and she has spent most of her life in a Montreal boarding school. When Harry suggests a month long stay with him at his summer cabin in Nova Scotia, Catherine is thrilled. Finally she'll have the kind of relationship with her father that other girls at school have with theirs. But the bright summer quickly darkens. Harry drinks a lot. The more Catherine witnesses his drinking, the more she begins to hate him. Only Catherine can't help but love him too. A travel writer with a poet's tongue, Harry is clever and exciting and tells wonderful stories until he drinks again and the playful father that takes her on picnics becomes someone dark and frightening. How can the man she grew up wishing to be close to seem so far away? And how can Catherine bring him back to her?
