and defends a generous understanding of the Christian tradition in its openness and commitment to broad conversation

How to Break Growth Barriers Carl F. George, Warren Bird, 2017-04-04 Some churches grow rapidly only to hit a ceiling Other churches have experienced declining or static attendance many of them for decades Frustrated pastors and church leaders want growth methods that work but without adding to pastoral fatigue How to Break Growth Barriers argues that growth comes when effective leadership and lay empowerment skills work hand in hand This requires a shift of focus from the shepherd as the primary caregiver to shepherd as developer and coach of many caregivers The authors show pastors how to communicate a vision for the future and then how to lead the congregation into the paradigms necessary for potentially limitless growth The strategies found in this book are not only tried and true and taken from a biblical perspective of a harvest vision They are also newly updated to reflect our changing culture including helpful charts and checklists for self evaluation

The Calling of Congregational Leadership Larry L. McSwain, 2013-05-30 Leading is a calling from God but that doesn't mean it is easy There are choices to be made about what your congregation believes how your church organizes for effective ministry and how your church serves the settings of which you are a part The good news is that others have gone before you Author Larry L McSwain's forty years of experience can help guide you through these choices Rooted in research The Calling of Congregational Leadership teaches a three pronged approach to congregational leadership being a good leader the knowledge needed by the leader and the managing of ministry leadership By using this practical holistic approach to leading congregations McSwain shows you how to use your church's potential for conveying the power of God in the lives you touch The Calling of Congregational Leadership is for those who seek to enlarge the understanding of their leadership to make their communities of faith more vital and more reflective of the mission of God in the world
