As Far As You Can Go Without A Passport Tom Bodett, 1986-01-22 Homespun humor about the way we live from the pleasant futility of salmon fishing and the joys of Halloween to quiet afternoons with soap opera families and endless nights in pursuit of trivia Tom Bodett humorist radio star and pitchman for Motel 6 lives and writes in Homer Alaska the little town in the blue Northwest where America stops carwise If you got into your car in New York he says and wanted to take a nice long drive I mean the longest drive you could without turning around or running into a foreign language this is where you'd wind up It's a place of moose and salmon and spectacular sunsets but Bodett insists it's also small town America a place not all that different from the Michigan town of his youth That's why he's made it his home it perfectly suits his contrary appetites for the extreme and the everyday for the rigors of the outdoor life and the mundane joys of the family circle As Far As You Can Go Without a Passport Bodett's first collection of casual essays contains pieces on everything from trapping tree cutting and halibut fishing to soap operas lost socks and sleeping in It's guaranteed to please both the renegade and the homebody in every reader
