Small Island A Novel:

Small Island Andrea Levy, 2009-04-30 Small Island by bestselling author Andrea Levy won the Orange Prize for Fiction and the Orange Prize Best of the Best as well as the Commonwealth Writers Prize and the Whitbread Possibly the definitive fictional account of the experiences of the Empire Windrush generation it was selected by the BBC as one of its 100 Novels That Shaped Our World A great read honest skilful thoughtful and important Guardian It is 1948 and England is recovering from a war But at 21 Nevern Street London the conflict has only just begun Queenie Bligh's neighbours don't approve when she agrees to take in Jamaican lodgers but with her husband Bernard not back from the war she has little choice in the matter Gilbert Joseph was one of the many Jamaican men who joined the RAF to fight Hitler But when he returns to England as a civilian he doesn't receive the welcome he was expecting and it's desperation that drives him to knock at Queenie's door Gilbert's wife Hortense who for years has longer for a better life in England soon joins him But London is far from the golden city of her dreams and even Gilbert is not the man she thought he was Small Island explores a point in England's past when the country began to change In this delicately wrought and profoundly moving novel Andrea Levy handles the weighty themes of empire prejudice war and love with a superb lightness of touch and generosity of spirit An engrossing read slyly funny passionately angry and wholly involving Daily Mail Gives us a new urgent take on our past Vogue

Small Island Andrea Levy, 2005-04 Told in four distinct voices the winner of the Orange Prize for Fiction 2004 is a courageous novel of tender emotion and sparkling wit encapsulating the most American of experiences the immigrant's life

Small Island Andrea Levy, 2010-03-30 An international bestseller Andrea Levy's Small Island won the Orange Prize for Fiction The Orange Prize for Fiction Best of the Best The Whitbread Novel Award The Whitbread Book of the Year Award and the Commonwealth Writers Prize Hortense Joseph arrives in London from Jamaica in 1948 with her life in her suitcase her heart broken her resolve intact Her husband Gilbert Joseph returns from the war expecting to be received as a hero but finds his status as a black man in Britain to be second class His white landlady Queenie raised as a farmer's daughter befriends Gilbert and later Hortense with innocence and courage until the unexpected arrival of her husband Bernard who returns from combat with issues of his own to resolve Told in these four voices Small Island is a courageous novel of tender emotion and sparkling wit of crossings taken and passages lost of shattering compassion and of reckless optimism in the face of insurmountable barriers in short an encapsulation of that most American of experiences the immigrant's life

Small Island Andrea Levy, 2008-01-01 Small Island a Novel, 2015 Bookclub-in-A-Box Discusses Small Island Marilyn Herbert, 2005-12-28 Small Island is a delightfully entertaining and probing book about Jamaican immigration to Britain in the days after WWII Bookclub in a Box will look at Levy's presentation of the black and white issues of post war London which include questions of class race and Empire Andrea Levy's parents were part of this immigration movement and she is interested in examining the perspective of people like her parents Bookclub in a Box will introduce the reader to the immigrants Gilbert Joseph and

Hortense Roberts whose mutual dream has always been to move to Britain the mother country of the colony Jamaica After arrival Gilbert and Hortense move into the boarding house run by Queenie Bligh while her husband Bernard is away fighting the war Through these four characters Levy explores the impact of immigration on both the immigrant and the citizen

Andrea Levy Jeannette Baxter, David James, 2014-03-13 Andrea Levy has emerged as one of the most significant and popular voices in contemporary black British writing both in the UK and abroad Drawing on a familial history of emigration her critically acclaimed novels including the multiple award winning Small Island attempt to bring a variety of voices to the representation of black experience in post war Britain This book is the first of its kind to be devoted to Levy's work Combining historical theoretical and textual perspectives the volume hosts a wide range of current critical approaches to Levy's fiction With chapters written by leading established and emerging scholars the book explores issues of literary form diasporic literature and cultural value the BBC TV adaptation of Small Island while also shedding fresh light on Levy's critically neglected early works The book also includes a new interview with Levy herself a timeline of her life chapter summaries as well as guides to further reading and online resources making this an essential companion to the writings of one of the most exciting voices in contemporary fiction

Domestic Intersections in Contemporary Migration Fiction Lucinda Newns, 2020-01-07 Homing the Metropole presents a new approach to diasporic fiction that reorients postcolonial readings of migration away from processes of displacement and rupture towards those of placement and homemaking While notions of home have frequently been associated with essentialist understandings of nation and race an uncritical investment in tropes of homelessness can prove equally hegemonic By synthesising postcolonial and intersectional feminist theory this work establishes the migrant domestic space as a central location of resistance countering notions of the private sphere as static uncreative and apolitical Through close readings of fiction emerging from the African Caribbean and South Asian diasporas it reassesses our conception of home in light of contemporary realities of globalisation and forced migration providing a valuable critique of the celebration of unfixed subject positions that has been a central tenet of postcolonial studies The Transnational in Literary Studies Kai Wiegandt, 2020-07-06 This volume clarifies the meanings and applications of the concept of the transnational and identifies areas in which the concept can be particularly useful The division of the volume into three parts reflects areas which seem particularly amenable to analysis through a transnational lens The chapters in Part 1 present case studies in which the concept replaces or complements traditionally dominant concepts in literary studies These chapters demonstrate for example why some dramatic texts and performances can better be described as transnational than as postcolonial and how the transnational underlies and complements concepts such as world literature Part 2 assesses the advantages and limitations of writing literary history with a transnational focus These chapters illustrate how such a perspective loosens the epistemic stranglehold of national historiographies but they also argue that the transnational and national agendas of literary historiography are frequently entangled The chapters in Part 3 identify transnational genres such as the transnational historical novel transnational migrant fiction and translinguistic theatre and analyse the specific poetics and politics of these genres Reading Across Worlds J. Procter, B. Benwell, 2014-12-17 Combining sustained empirical analysis of reading group conversations with four case studies of classic and contemporary novels Things Fall Apart White Teeth Brick Lane and Small Island this book pursues what can be gained through a comparative approach to reading and readerships Contemporary Fictions of Multiculturalism Michael Perfect, 2015-12-04 Contemporary Fictions of Multiculturalism analyses novels of the late 20th and early 21st centuries that explore ethnic and cultural diversity in London It contributes to key ongoing debates in literary and cultural studies and in particular to debates over the status and relevance of multiculturalism today Reading Beyond the Book Danielle Fuller, DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2013 This volume offers the first critical analysis of mass reading events and the contemporary meanings of reading in the UK USA and Canada based on original interviews and surveys with readers and event organisers The authors interrogate the enduring attraction of an old technology for readers community organizers and government agencies exploring the social practices inspired by the sharing of books in public spaces and revealing the complex ideological investments made by readers cultural workers institutions and the mass media in the meanings of reading Contemporary British Fiction Nick Bentley, 2017-11-15 This essential guide provides a comprehensive survey of the most important debates in the criticism and research of contemporary British fiction Nick Bentley analyses the criticism surrounding a range of British novelists including Monica Ali Martin Amis Pat Barker Alan Hollinghurst Kazuo Ishiguro Ian McEwan David Mitchell Ali Smith Zadie Smith Sarah Waters and Jeanette Winterson Exploring experiments with literary form this authoritative book considers cutting edge concerns relating to the neo historical novel the relationship between literature and science literary geographies and trauma narratives Engaging with key literary theories and identifying present trends and future directions in the literary criticism of contemporary British fiction this is an invaluable resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of English literature teachers researchers and scholars
