Students Changing Roles Changing Lives:

Students Harold Silver, 1997 What it means to be a student has changed as dramatically as higher education itself It has always meant more than the formal academic role and this book is concerned with the changes in students lives activities and attitudes since the period of student activism in the 1960s and 1970s The authors have visited universities and colleges interviewed students and staff and looked at the records of institutions and students unions They go beyond past research concerns with learning attainment and statistics to discuss residence students unions clubs and societies the lives of different constituencies of students representation leisure hardship part time employment They consider the impacts of changes in size funding diversity the idea of community and the definitions of students as apprentices customers consumers participants They compare experience in the UK with that in the USA This is the first book to attempt such a wide ranging picture of students lives into the 1990s

Changing Lives, 1995 A A A Thirteen women s studies pioneers from eleven Asian countries narrate their individual passages into feminist consciousness and the monumental effect of women s studies on their private and professional lives Each woman s odyssey moves against the backdrop of her country s social and political systems as well as through the dailiness of her family life In their efforts to balance demanding careers as anthropologists economists psychologists and even as a member of parliament with normal family lives these women all come to realize that their husbands experienced no such difficulties They regard women s studies as a key strategy for changing women s lives just as it has changed theirs A A A In Changing Lives women s studies link these stories although the individual narratives are extremely diverse Aurora Javate de Dios worked as a political activist in the Philippines in the 1970s then married and reared three children before becoming a women s studies pionerr Economist Fareeha Zafar worked to establish the first women s trade union in Pakistan in the early 1970s and to found the Women s Action Forum and women s studies in Pakistan After Liang Jun of China at 40 married with two children and an academic career attended a lecture by Li Xiaojiang she suddenly saw a lighthouse on a dark sea Contributors Noemi Alindogan Medina Philippines Fanny M Cheung Hong Kong Aurora Javate Dios Philippines Cho Hyoung South Korea Liang Jun China Malavika Karlekar India Nora Lan hung Chiang Huang Taiwan Yasuko Murumatsu Japan Thanh Dam Truong Vietnam Aline K Wong Singapore Li Xiaojiang China Fareeha Zafar Pakistan

How To Improve Your School Jean Rudduck, Julia Flutter, 2004-01-01 This fascinating book focuses on those who are most affected by changes in education policy and systems the pupils It draws on empirical evidence from a number of research projects and distils this into a compelling account of contemporary schooling from the pupils perspective Jean Rudduck calls for a shift in the way we currently view young people at school and sets out a case for radically rethinking aspects of school organization relationships and practice Her research confirms that we need to see pupils differently to re assess their capabilities and reflect on what they are capable of being and doing

Changing Lives Taylor Stoehr, 2015-12-22 Changing Lives recounts the experiences of a dozen men on probation in Massachusetts who took classes for three months to read and talk about great works of literature The men explored the writings of Malcolm X Leo Tolstoy and Anton Chekhov amongst others In these writings the men discovered many issues relating to their own lives such as substance abuse family breakdown poverty and racism The lessons create a safe space for reflection and earnest conversation in which the students no longer have to bluff or be cool guarded or evasive And because the classroom puts them on equal footing with authority figures teachers probation officers and even judges a new social awareness begins to emerge Changing Lives shows how reawakening moral consciousness and a fresh commitment to society is essential if probationers are not to cycle endlessly through the limbo of street life and jail time

Midlife Creativity and Identity

Philip Miles, 2018-11-30 This book explores the artistic routines and inspirations of amateur and professional musicians fine artists and literary authors experiencing midlife Based on ethnographic insight it argues that creativity is driven by the pursuit of a mezzanine in between state where the anarchy of possibility is an antidote to the realities of middle age

Theory Building in Educational Research Nigel Kettley, 2013-02-14 This volume provides comprehensive guidance on the subjects of concept generation and theory building in educational research By deploying the conceptual methodological and theoretical principles of the Cambridge School of Sociology which underpin a range of contemporary empirical research the author shows how theory building and theory in contemporary educational research are in a state of crisis In his compelling analysis Nigel Kettley develops an alternative approach to theory building in educational research and explores a radical new system for facilitating the growth of knowledge and the development of sound policy recommendations in education studies

Stories Changing Lives Corinne Squire, 2020-11-24 Stories Changing Lives analyzes the strong significance of personal stories for social change The book brings to the fore the multimodalities of narratives the value of multiple stories genres positions and intersectionalities and the interdisciplinarity historical reach and transnationalism of narrative research

Changing Lives, Changing Business Michael Moynagh, Richard Worsley, 2009-02-18 A comprehensive look at emerging demographic trends and how the business world can plan now to deal with the workforce of the future

Colleges That Change Lives Loren Pope, 2006-07-25 Prospective college students and their parents have been relying on Loren Pope's expertise since 1995 when he published the first edition of this indispensable guide This new edition profiles 41 colleges all of which outdo the Ivies and research universities in producing performers not only among A students but also among those who get Bs and Cs Contents include Evaluations of each school's program and personality Candid assessments by students professors and deans Information on the progress of graduates This new edition not only revisits schools listed in previous volumes to give readers a comprehensive assessment it also addresses such issues as homeschooling learning disabilities and single sex education

Mothers, Wives and Changing Lives Sally Baker, Brian J Brown, 2011-02-15 Despite the great changes that the twentieth century brought to the lives and roles of the women of rural Wales there has been scant attention paid to the topic by social scientists and historians even within Wales Mothers Wives and Changing

Lives rectifies that mistake drawing on a wealth of family stories about women's roles in education the church and the family in order to address significant gaps in our knowledge of women and Welsh culture
