Studies In Medieval Culture X:

Studies in Medieval Culture, X John R. Sommerfeldt, Thomas H. Seiler, 1977 Law as Profession and Practice in Medieval Europe Kenneth Pennington, Melodie Harris Eichbauer, 2016-04-15 This volume brings together papers by a group of scholars distinguished in their own right in honour of James Brundage The essays are organised into four sections each corresponding to an important focus of Brundage's scholarly work The first section explores the connection between the development of medieval legal and constitutional thought Thomas Izbicki Kenneth Pennington and Charles Reid Jr explore various aspects of the jurisprudence of the Ius commune while James Powell Michael Gervers and Nicole Hamonic Olivia Robinson and Elizabeth Makowski examine how that jurisprudence was applied to various medieval institutions Brian Tierney and James Muldoon conclude this section by demonstrating two important points modern ideas of consent in the political sphere and fundamental principles of international law attributed to sixteenth century jurists like Hugo Grotius have deep roots in medieval jurisprudential thought Patrick Zutshi R H Helmholz Peter Landau Marjorie Chibnall and Edward Peters have written essays that augment Brundage's work on the growth of the legal profession and how traces of a legal education began to emerge in many diverse arenas The influence of legal thinking on marriage and sexuality was another aspect of Brundage's broad interests In the third section Richard Kay Charles Donahue Jr and Glenn Olsen explore the intersection of law and marriage and the interplay of legal thought on a central institution of Christian society The contributions of Jonathan Riley Smith and Robert Somerville in the fourth section round out the volume and are devoted to Brundage's path breaking work on medieval law and the crusading movement The volume also includes a comprehensive bibliography of Brundage's work Pater Bernhardus Franz Posset, 2018-08-09 Collected Works Vol 1 The Two Fold Knowledge Readings on the Knowledge of Self and the Knowledge of God Vol 2 Pater Bernhardus Martin Luther and Bernard of Clairvaux Vol 3 Luther's Catholic Christology According to His Johannine Lectures of 1527 A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15 Research on Culture and Values George F. McLean, 1989 Fictions of Identity in Medieval France Donald Maddox, 2000-11-23 In this study of vernacular French narrative from the twelfth century through the later Middle Ages first published in 2000 Donald Maddox considers the construction of identity in a wide range of fictions He focuses on crucial encounters widespread in medieval literature in which characters are informed about fundamental aspects of their own circumstances and selfhood These always arresting and highly significant moments of specular encounter are examined in numerous Old and Middle French romances hagiographic texts epics and brief narratives Maddox discloses the key role of identity in an original reading of the Lais of Marie de France as a unified collection as well as in Arthurian literature fictions of the courtly tryst genealogies and medieval family romance The study offers many new perspectives on the poetic and cultural implications of identity as an imaginary construct during the long formative period of French literature Conversion Among the Germanic Peoples Carole M. Cusack, 1998-11-06 This book is a study of the process of conversion among the Germanic peoples from the third to eleventh centuries The intention is twofold firstly to examine previous scholarship on conversion and to develop a model of conversion appropriate to the Germanic peoples and secondly to produce a comparative study of six Germanic conversions Chapter 1 reviews the existing models of conversion developed by scholars in a number of fields principally psychology anthropology and religious studies and develops an alternative model Chapters 2 7 are case studies which apply this model to the conversions of the Goths Franks Anglo Saxons continental Saxons Scandinavians and Icelanders The final chapter presents in summary form the insights from the case studies The Poetry of the Medieval Troubadour, William IX of Aquitaine Fidel Fajardo-Acosta,2023-08-15 The Poetry of the Medieval Troubadour William IX of Aquitaine The Songs that Built Europe offers a new edition translation and critical discussion of the songs of the first European troubadour William IX Duke of Aquitaine This book argues that William and his poetic works manifest the economic political and cultural forces that laid the foundations of modern Europe including the subjectivities of modern westerners and the concerns and motifs of what later became the national literatures of France Spain England Germany and Italy Encouraging personal freedoms self definition and the pursuit of love and happiness the culture of courtly love that William initiated is distinctly modern but can also be seen to have played a key role in the subjection of medieval Europeans to the then emergent market economy imperialist ambitions of the Church and authority of proto national kingdoms As such subjection affected even the highest ranking aristocrats such as William the road of liberation of desire appears to have been a fast lane to serfdom for everyone perhaps the most pre modern feature of the modern and postmodern conditions 2005 Massimo Mastrogregori,2009-12-22 Annually published since 1930 the International Bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The IBOHS is thus currently the only continuous bibliography of its kind covering such a broad period of time spectrum of subjects and geographical range The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and alphabetically according to authors names or in the case of anonymous works by the characteristic main title word The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors Books in Print ,1994
