Local Churches Helen Cameron (et al., eds), Studying Local Churches by Helen Cameron Philip J Richter Douglas Davies 2005 Paperback by Helen Cameron et al eds Local Churches in New Urban Britain, 1890-1975 Grant Masom, 2020-07-31 This monograph is an important contribution to our understanding of the varied fortunes of British Christianity during the twentieth century Rev Dr Andrew Atherstone Tutor in Church History and Latimer Research Fellow Wycliffe Hall University of Oxford UK This book is an important and original work Anyone interested in twentieth century Christianity in Britain will learn much from it Grant Masom enables the reader to make sense of the new urban spaces that became a key part of British life in the last hundred years Rev Dr David Goodhew Visiting Fellow of St Johns College Durham University UK This ground breaking study adds new depth to our understanding of the importance of religion in English life and the role of the churches in shaping their own destiny in the first three quarters of the twentieth century Dr Mark Smith Associate Professor in History University of Oxford UK This book contributes to the ongoing academic debates on secularisation or the marginalisation of mainstream religious beliefs and practices in twentieth century British society It addresses three areas in which the current literature is weak the agency of organised religion in the outcomes described as secularisation rather than explanations based on external challenges such as the modernisation of society and thought increased affluence and more leisure choices a focus on urban areas transformed by twentieth century industrialisation and suburbanisation and an extended time period to the end of the third quarter of the twentieth century allowing proper consideration of long term trends alongside short term upheavals such as the World Wars the Great Depression and the social changes of the 1960s Further the book employs a distinctly different highly data driven approach considers all religious movements and sets its conclusions within the wider social and cultural context of a representative community Improving the Total Program of Your Church National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America. Division of Christian Education,1951 Consultancy Skills for Mission and Ministry David Dadswell,2013-01-08 Consultancy is increasingly being used to support mission and to help church leaders and workers in the challenges they face in their work Helping churches and workers understand their situation and develop effective strategies demands skilful consultants who can handle issues of context and theology the characteristics of voluntary sector organisations and mission in a post modern world This guide to being a church consultant offers rigorous practical consultancy theory and tools as well as pointing to a rich range of methods and models for further investigation By integrating the insights of practical theory organizational studies the social sciences and a range of helping skills consultants will be able to support those who are leading change in churches in processes which are more explicit and carefully thought through than is often the case This book encourages consultants to develop their own model and practice built on a healthy cycle of sound theory evaluated practice and thoughtful feedback The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies

Kirsteen Kim,Knud Jørgensen,Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga,2022 Includes over 10 cutting edge articles on Christian mission by scholars from all continents covering the agendas agents methods social effects and self understanding of Christian mission Offers an interdisciplinary approach including theology history and social sciences Includes sections on the theory theology practice and history of mission and mission in relationship to cultures religious and societies Book jacket

House Churches in Post-Communist Europe Randy Hacker,2023-02-10 This is an exploration of house churches especially in Poland The book begins with a review of literature about the global house church movement and continues with an article on the early Christian transition from house churches to purpose built buildings for churches Next is an article regarding the concept of sacred space in relation to house churches The first half concludes with a chapter on methodology of research for a qualitative interview approach to studying house churches The thesis then presents a theological method for using the qualitative interviews to develop ecclesiology Sixteen interviews from thirteen house churches are presented The thesis continues the theological method by attempting to answer the question why is it going on and presents a thematic analysis from the qualitative interviews that includes input from sociological research done in Poland The thesis concludes by using scriptural and academic sources in conversation with house church interviews from the interviews and global house church literature to present four primary conclusions in a practical prophetic ecclesiology Seeing Religion Roman

Williams,2015-05-13 The potential of visual research methods in the sociology of religion is vast but largely untapped This comes as a surprise however given the visual symbolic and material nature of religion and spirituality Evidence of religious faith and practice is materially present in everything from clothing and jewelry to artifacts found in people s homes and workplaces Not only is religion s symbolic and material presence palpable throughout society it also informs attitudes beliefs and behaviors of countless people worldwide Words and numbers approaches to social research however sometimes miss important dimensions of religion and spirituality in the contemporary world Seeing Religion is an invitation to a visual sociology of religion Contributors draw from their current research to discuss the application of visual methods to the study of religion and spirituality Each chapter stimulates the sociological imagination through examples of research techniques analytical approaches and methodological concerns Life-study of Revelation: Messages 1-16 Witness Lee, 1999
