Suicide As Psychache A Clinical Approach:

Suicide as Psychache Edwin S. Shneidman, 1993 A collection of previously published articles discussing the definition of suicide analyses of its occurrence and possible therapeutic responses , Essential Papers on Suicide John T. Maltsberger, Mark Goldblatt, 1996-08 An exploration of the motivations characteristics and psychology of suicide Why do people take their own lives How can clinicians best plan and carry out intelligent treatment of desperate patients who are giving up on themselves Suicide its motivations characteristics and psychology are explicated in these papers by the most experienced and renowned experts on the subject A definitive volume Essential Papers on Suicide features the work of Ernest Jones Kate Friedlander George Murphy R H Wilkinson S Gassner and J Kayes Joseph C Sabbath Robert E Litman Milton Rosenbaum Charles Swearingen Avery D Weisman Mervin Glasser Egl Laufer Moses Laufer and Myer Wohl Donald A Schwartz Don E Flinn and Paul F Slawson Aaron T Beck Maria Kovacs and Arlene Weissman Marie sberg Lil Traskman and Peter Thoren Stuart Asch John T Maltsberger Alex D Pokorny Erna Furman Cynthia R Pfeffer Robert Plutchik Mark S Mizruchi and Robert Lipkins Myrna M Weissman Gerald L Klerman Jeffrey S Markowitz and R Oullette Jan Fawcett William A Scheftner Louis Fogg David C Clark Michael A Young Don Hedeker and Robert Gibbons among others A Comprehensive Guide to Suicidal Behaviours David Aldridge, Sergio Perez, 2012-02-15 This book explains the classifications and manifestations of suicide risk factors at risk groups and warning signs Advice on effective communication and strategies for distress management are offered for use with vulnerable individuals those who have survived a suicide attempt and families coping with bereavement Discourses of Men's Suicide Notes Dariusz Galasinski, 2017-10-19 Deaths by suicide are high every 40 seconds someone in the world chooses to end their life Despite acknowledgement that suicide notes are social texts there has been no book which analyzes suicide notes as discursive texts and no attempt at a qualitative discourse analysis of them Discourses of Men s Suicide Notes redresses this gap in the literature Focussing on men and masculinity and anchored in qualitative discourse analysis Dariusz Galasinski responds to the need for a more thorough understanding of suicidal behaviour Culturally men have been posited to be masters of the universe and yet some choose to end their lives This book takes a qualitative approach to data gathered from the Polish Corpus of Suicide Notes a unique repository of over 600 suicide notes to explore discourse from and about men at the most traumatic juncture of their lives Discussing how men construct suicide notes and the ways in which they position their relationships and identities within them Discourses of Men s Suicide Notes seeks to understand what these notes mean and what significance and power they are invested with Explaining Suicide Cheryl L. Meyer, Taronish Irani, Katherine A. Hermes, Betty Yung, 2017-01-05 The rate of suicides is at its highest level in nearly 30 years Suicide notes have long been thought to be valuable resources for understanding suicide motivation but up to now the small sample sizes available have made an in depth analysis difficult Explaining Suicide Patterns Motivations and What Notes Reveal represents a large scale analysis of suicide motivation across multiple ages during the same time period This was made possible via a unique dataset of all suicide notes collected by the coroner's office in southwestern Ohio 2000-2009 Based on an analysis of this dataset the book identifies top motivations for suicide how these differ between note writers and non note writers and what this can tell us about better suicide prevention The book reveals the extent to which suicide is motivated by interpersonal violence substance abuse physical pain grief feelings of failure and mental illness Additionally it discusses other risk factors what differentiates suicide attempters from suicide completers and lastly what might serve as protective factors toward resilience Analyzes 1200 suicide cases from one coroner's office Identifies the top motivations for suicide that are based on suicide notes Discusses the extent to which suicides are impulsive vs planned Leads to a better understanding on how to prevent suicide Emphasizes resilience factors over risk factors

Anorexia Nervosa and Bulimia Nervosa Pamela I. Swain, 2006 The abundance of food in the developed countries of the world has seemingly spawned an epidemic of disorders connected to the food Extremes such as intensive concern about one's body image and total disregard for it have resulted in countries which contain enormous segments of the population who are either obese and proud of it or bordering on anorexia nervosa This new book gathers state of the art research from leading scientists throughout the world which offers important information on understanding the underlying causes and discovering the most effective treatments for eating disorders Suicide-Related Behaviour Columba

McLaughlin,2007-06-29 The book is an attempt to make sense of suicide related behaviour in terms of understanding its aetiology and how practitioners can respond in a caring and therapeutic manner The last 30 years the data gathered has consistently indicated that suicide is a leading cause of death in young people especially men Alongside this the incidence of self harm which has always been high does not seem to be abating Some professionals argue that attempted suicide and self harm are both the same entity This book puts forward that they are two sides of the same coin and this coin is called suicide related behaviour This is a general term used in the book to describe all behaviours where the person intended to kill or harm themselves In doing so relevant issues within the phenomenon of suicide related behaviour and specific to both self harm and attempted suicide will be explored and addressed Discursive Constructions of the Suicidal Process Dariusz

Galasinski,Justyna Ziolkowska,2020-07-09 What is suicide When does suicide start and when does it end Who is involved Examining narratives of suicide through a discourse analytic framework Discursive Constructions of the Suicidal Process demonstrates how linguistic theories and methodologies can help answer these questions and cast light upon what suicide involves and means both for those who commit an act and their loved ones Engaging in close analysis of suicide letters written before the act and post hoc narratives from after the event this book is the first qualitative study to view suicide not as a single event outside time but as a time extended process Exploring how suicide is experienced and narrated from two temporal perspectives Dariusz Galasinski and Justyna Ziolkowska introduce discourse analysis to the field of suicidology Arguing that studying suicide narratives and the reality they represent can add significantly to our understanding of the process and in particular its experiences and meanings Discursive Constructions of the Suicidal Process demonstrates the value of discourse analytic insights in informing enriching and contextualising our knowledge of suicide The Certified
