

The book cover features a vibrant, painterly illustration of a beach scene. At the top, two wooden beach chairs with orange and white striped fabric sit on a sandy shore, facing a calm blue ocean under a clear sky. The title 'ZORA ROBERTS' is prominently displayed in the center, with 'ZORA' in a large, elegant blue script and 'ROBERTS' in a smaller, blue serif font. Below the author's name, the word 'Summer' is written in a warm, orange-brown serif font, followed by 'Pleasures' in a larger, matching orange-brown serif font. Underneath the title, a line of text in a small, black serif font reads 'Containing the classic novels Second Nature and One Summer'. The bottom half of the cover is dominated by a large, detailed illustration of watermelon slices. One large wedge of watermelon with a thick green rind and bright red flesh is the central focus, with several other smaller slices scattered around it. These slices are resting on a beach towel with bold, horizontal stripes in shades of blue, orange, and yellow. The overall style is artistic and evocative of a sunny summer day.
