Things I Learned While Breathing on a Regular Basis Bill Kirvan, 2015-10-29. Why would someone who in his early academic years was a C minus student in all subjects relating to the English language write a book? My beginning started when I realized what going to basketball camp in the fourth grade meant to me. Finding something that infatuated me and over time making slow and steady progress while doing something I loved was an eye opener. I didn't mind the effort required to become a better player. The next important step was getting married and understanding how important it was to have a sense of purpose. I was part of a team that was raising a family. A sense of purpose is a great motivator. My final driver was realizing my children and grandchildren should understand that I wasn't a grandfather from birth. Growing up is filled with a multitude of highs and lows, and it is important to move forward, taking the good with the bad. I wanted to give them a taste of the things I learned over time. In the early stages of life, so many young people have absolutely no clue as how much they will learn, growing physically and intellectually as they advance from teenagers to young adulthood. My suggestion is find something you love to do early in life and decide to be very good in your field. There are no losses from this strategy as you will find something meant for you or something to stay away from. For me, it was important I stay away from engineering.

North vs. South Collection Jules Verne, Mark Twain, Randall Parrish, George Washington Cable, John Esten Cooke, Edward Robins, John William De Forest, Ambrose Bierce, Winston Churchill, Edward Everett Hale, Charles King, Natalie

Sumner Lincoln, Charles Carleton Coffin, James Ford Rhodes, John McElroy, Lucy Foster Madison, Harry Hazelton, Henry F. Keenan, George W. Peck, John R. Musick, Robert W. Chambers, Joseph A. The North vs South Collection is a vibrant tapestry woven with tales depicting the rich and tumultuous history of the American Civil War era. From daring escapades to poignant reflections, this anthology traverses a wide array of literary styles, showcasing the era's tapestry through the pens of celebrated authors. Each piece contributes to the overarching theme of division and unity, resonating with timeless truths about humanity's unwavering spirit. The collection includes standout works capturing the conflict's essence, providing insights into both the battlefield and the home front, ensuring there's something for every literary taste. Each contributing author's unique background and perspective enriches the anthology, making it a landmark collection in its historical and cultural resonance. Literary giants such as Jules Verne, Mark Twain, and Ambrose Bierce, along with other luminaries, offer narratives that are as diverse as they are compelling. Aligning with the Realist and Naturalist movements of their time, these voices reflect the multifaceted experiences of a nation at war with itself. This collection transcends mere storytelling, forging connections between past and present North and South through its diverse authorship. For readers eager to embark on a literary journey through the complex landscape of the American Civil War, the North vs South Collection offers an unparalleled opportunity. This anthology invites you to explore multiple perspectives that challenge and illuminate, while fostering a deeper understanding of an era that shaped modern America. Ideal for both academic study and personal reflection, this volume provides a thorough examination of interconnected themes and narratives, making it a must-read for those yearning for both educational enrichment and profound storytelling.

Who Would Have Thought It: My Story of the American Civil War María Ruiz de Burton, 2021-05-07 This book details the struggles of a Mexican American girl born in Indian captivity, Lola, in an American society obsessed with class, religion, race, and gender. The first part of the book follows the central family in the years leading up to the start of the American Civil War and the attack on Fort Sumter, 1857-1861, and flashbacks are meant to take the readers back further than that time line, such as the kidnapping of Lola's mother in 1846. The second part chronicles the events that took place during the Civil War, 1861-1864. Each chapter focuses on a particular character and is told from an omniscient point of view. Who Would Have Thought It is a semi-autobiographical novel written by María Ruiz de Burton, and it reflects the author's ambiguous position between the small number of Californio elite and the Anglo American populace, which form the majority of the United States population.
