

The background of the cover is a scenic landscape. In the foreground, there's a large, dark, craggy rock formation. A river or stream flows through the middle ground, reflecting the sky. In the background, there are rolling hills or mountains under a blue sky with some clouds. The overall tone is peaceful and natural.

Summerhill Hounds J. Robert King, 1995 When the Summerhill keep falls to an enemy and all its men are carried off into captivity it is up to the dogs of the keep mutts terriers pets shepherds mastiffs and more to rescue their masters from their captors Original Boys' Life, 1995-11 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting Hibernia Venatica Maurice O'Connor Morris, 1878 The New sporting magazine, Neill of Summerhill (Routledge Revivals) Jonathan Croall, 2013-09-13 A S Neill was arguably the most famous child educator of the twentieth century He was certainly the most controversial All over the world countless parents and teachers have been shocked delighted or inspired by his subversive ideas about education or by a visit to that dreadful school which continues to this day Summerhill First published in 1983 this sympathetic but critical exploration of his iconoclastic ideas and personality is the result of interviews with two hundred ex pupils parents and teachers about life at Summerhill and of the practicality of Neill's philosophy about child freedom Jonathan Croall has also drawn on many unpublished letters and documents which help to illuminate Neill's personal struggles and his analysis and friendship with Homer Lane Wilhelm Stekel and Wilhelm Reich The result is a fascinating and revealing portrait of a remarkable man who in his absolute determination to be on the side of the child remained in permanent opposition to the adult world Hounds in the Morning Carl B. Cone, 2021-10-21 Across the rolling countryside of Regency England sound the call of the horn and the chorus of hounds as huntsmen hounds and horses tear across fields and leap fencerows in ardent pursuit of Reynard In a field outside London two brawny men strip to the waist and prepare to batter each other to a pulp for the pleasure of the Fancy the hundreds of boxing fans who have ridden from all over England to see and bet on the illegal match And through the streets of a country town the lads rough and tumble in a wildly joyous game of football while the populace cheers and the shopkeepers board up their windows Such were the sights and sounds of the sporting life of England a hundred and fifty years ago This sparkling collection of articles from the Sporting Magazine dating from 1792 to 1836 attests to the vigor and variety of English sports in that era The equestrian sports of fox and stag hunting thoroughbred racing and coaching were largely the passion of the landed classes while all ranks of the populace relished bloody contests that set man against man or animal against animal boxing cock fighting bull baiting rat killing Throughout the land team sports such as football and cricket along with such individual activities as pedestrianism shooting archery and skating allowed men and women of all walks of life to test their muscles their endurance and their nerve All these people and events filled the pages of the Sporting Magazine the first periodical devoted exclusively to sports Carl Cone provides a historical framework for these lively accounts by the first sport journalists In addition more than fifty engravings from the heyday of sporting art illustrate the exuberance of the time The New Sporting Magazine, 1839

Addressed To A Young Sportman, About To Undertake A Hunting Establishment Donald Cook,2012-12-21 Originally published in 1826 this very early work on fox hunting is both expensive and hard to find in its first edition This is a fascinating read for any fox hunting enthusiast or historian and also contains much information that is still useful and practical today Many of the earliest books particularly those dating back to 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive We are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original artwork and text Observations on fox-hunting and the management of hounds in the kennel and the field John Cook (col.),1826 The Austrian Court in the Nineteenth Century Sir Horace Rumbold,1909
