Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World Sally A. Brown, 2020-04-07 What can preachers do to help congregants navigate everyday life with the courage imagination and savvy it takes to testify in action and word to God's mercy and justice Christianity's witness depends on credible Christian lives carried out in ordinary settings of everyday life Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World helps preachers design sermons that equip believers to act with improvisational creative courage in the ordinary settings of their Monday to Saturday lives How can we who preach inspire the ordinary prophets of our time those who in Christ's name will act in great or small ways as agents of redemptive interruption Sally A. Brown with her extensive experience both in parish ministry and training others for ministry shares preaching strategies that equip these ordinary prophets to take daring action Brown begins by reconsidering the power and limits of the missional model of Christian witness and argues that Christian witness today must be adaptive and therefore imaginative and improvisational She then turns to the connection between the sermons our listeners hear on Sunday and their capacity to timely inventive action in everyday situations Sunday's Sermon for Monday's World will inspire both preachers and those who listen to them to move from sanctuary to street week after week eager to discern and participate in the ongoing redemptive work of God already under way amid the ordinary scenes and settings of their Monday to Saturday lives
