situations that the artist constructs in his work for viewers participants and institutional representatives including gallery directors curators and other museum staff members Drawing on art criticism the reports of viewers and participants in Asher s projects and the artist s own archives Peltom ki offers a comprehensive account of Asher s work over the past four decades Because of the intensely site specific nature of this work as well as the artist s refusal to reconstruct past works or mount retrospectives many of the projects Peltom ki discusses are described here for the first time By emphasizing the social and psychological sites of art rather than the production of autonomous art objects Peltom ki argues Asher constructs experientially complex situations that profoundly affect those who encounter them bringing about both personal and institutional transformation
