The Cinema of Urban Crisis Lawrence Webb, 2025-10-01 In the 1970s cities across the United States and Western Europe faced a deep social and political crisis that challenged established principles of planning economics and urban theory At the same time film industries experienced a parallel process of transition the effects of which rippled through the aesthetic and narrative form of the decade s cinema The Cinema of Urban Crisis traces a new path through the cinematic legacy of the 1970s by drawing together these intertwined histories of urban and cultural change Bringing issues of space and place to the fore the book unpacks the geographical and spatial dynamics of film movements from the New Hollywood to the New German Cinema showing how the crisis of the seventies and the emerging postindustrial economy brought film and the city together in new configurations Chapters cover a range of cities on both sides of the Atlantic from New York Philadelphia and San Francisco to London Paris and Berlin Integrating analysis of film industries and production practices with detailed considerations of individual texts the book offers strikingly original close analyses of a wide range of films from New Hollywood The Conversation The King of Marvin Gardens Rocky to European art cinema Alice in the Cities The Passenger Tout va Bien and popular international genres such as the political thriller and the crime film Focusing on the aesthetic and representational strategies of these films the book argues that the decade s cinema engaged with and helped to shape the passage from the urban crisis of the late sixties to the neoliberal urban renaissance of the early eighties Splicing ideas from film studies with urban geography and architectural history the book offers a fresh perspective on a rich period of film history and opens up new directions for critical engagement between film and urban studies R. Crumb David Stephen Calonne,2021-02-01 Robert Crumb b 1943 read widely and deeply a long roster of authors including Robert Louis Stevenson Charles Dickens J D Salinger Jack Kerouac William S Burroughs and Allen Ginsberg as well as religious classics including biblical Buddhist Hindu and Gnostic texts Crumb s genius according to author David Stephen Calonne lies in his ability to absorb a variety of literary artistic and spiritual traditions and incorporate them within an original American mode of discourse that seeks to reveal his personal search for the meaning of life R Crumb Literature Autobiography and the Quest for Self contains six chapters that chart Crumb s intellectual trajectory and explore the recurring philosophical themes that permeate his depictions of literary and biographical works and the ways he responds to them through innovative dazzling compositional techniques Calonne explores the ways Crumb develops concepts of solitude despair desire and conflict as aspects of the quest for self in his engagement with the book of Genesis and works by Franz Kafka Jean Paul Sartre the Beats Charles Bukowski and Philip K Dick as well as Crumb s illustrations of biographies of musicians Jelly Roll Morton and Charley Patton Calonne demonstrates how Crumb s love for literature led him to attempt an extremely faithful rendering of the texts he admired while at the same time highlighting for his readers the particular hidden philosophical meanings he found most significant in his own autobiographical quest for identity and his authentic self Sam Francis Debra Burchett-Lere,Aneta Zebala,2019 The next title in the respected Artist s Materials series offers groundbreaking analysis of Sam Francis s working methods and materials American artist Sam Francis 1923 1994 brought vivid color and emotional intensity to Abstract Expressionism He was described as the most sensuous and sensitive painter of his generation by former Guggenheim Museum director James Johnson Sweeney and curator Howard Fox called him one of the acknowledged masters of late modern art Francis s works whether intimate or monumental in scale make indelible impressions the intention of the artist was to make them felt as much as seen At the age of twenty Francis was hospitalized for spinal tuberculosis and spent three years virtually immobilized in a body cast For physical therapy he was given a set of watercolors and as he described it he painted his way back to life The exuberant color and expression in his paintings celebrated his survival his five decade career was an energetic visual and theoretical exploration that took him around the world Francis s idiosyncratic painting practices have long been the subject of speculation and debate among conservators and art historians Presented here for the first time in this volume are the results of an in depth scientific study of more than forty paintings from the late 1940s to early 1990s which reveal new discoveries about his creative process inventive techniques and specially formulated paints and binders The data provides a key to the complicated evolution of the artist s work and informs original art historical interpretations
