The Time is Now Christa Boske, 2022-08-01 High school students teachers community members and leaders come together in this innovative book to share the profound influence of artmaking and justice oriented work Authors paint vibrant images of being empowered and engaging in social change Throughout their art based meaning making authors pose critical questions and unlock possibilities Their first tellings regarding the power of art provide readers with a lens to understand how they navigate injustices they endure and ways in which artmaking is a vehicle for transformation Their artmaking is a call for change Authors emphasize how artmaking bridges relationships and brings diverse community members together with purpose Together they engage in new understandings of self and other Authors identify how their arts based collaborations publicly showcase their justice oriented work but more importantly promote possibility and hope Youth explore how artmaking plays a vital role in promoting collective efficacy and engaging diverse communities in social transformation Artmaking mobilizes people And once activated these authors utilize their newly cultivated communities to foster justice oriented work throughout schools and communities Their justice oriented artmaking affords community members opportunities to respond in new ways by embracing community strengths and students lived experiences This authentic collaboration empowers the artmaker and community to promote justice oriented work and practices centered on diversity and inclusivity

ENDORSEMENTS

Reading Christa Boske's The Time is Now is to find a profound sense of joy wholeness and energy to push out the borders of consciousness too tightly bound to the hyper-rationalism of the workday world grounded in materialism and business transactions The collected authors in Christa's book give form to the spirit world and its proclivity to allow the whole human being to embrace it putter in it explore it and find themselves in the journey Artmaking is about self discovery and emancipation It's a must read for anyone who wants re-establish a belief in themselves and in humanity

Fenwick W English Professor and Department Chair Ball State University

Read this compelling new resource if you want to engage the next generation of youth activists in transforming our world Truly The Time is Now offers school leaders the most exciting creative avenues for generating justice we've seen in a long time This book rises to the challenge of being real when so much is at stake

Margaret Grogan Professor of Educational Leadership Policy Chapman University

The Time is Now A profound title that encapsulates so much regarding what we need in today's world Woven through the various narratives we accept the invitation to hear the stories of artists and explorers in their respective communities An authentic confrontation of the many tensions that exist in our quest to seek out equity in the areas of diversity inclusivity and lived experiences Voices that ring of radical change the reconceptualization of freedom and the agentive stance we are called to take to realize a higher state of being and a more noble existence The stories remind us that the dream of transformation is our most compelling force this book gives us a map of all that is possible if we work together

Lillian McEnery Benavente Director and Professor University of Houston

Christa Boske's edited book The Time is Now provides readers with a profound sense of what it means to live through injustice The book though is not just a collection of heartbreaking stories but a chronicle of triumphs as the previously unheard are finally given a voice through artmaking In chapter after deeply moving chapter I was struck by the simultaneous vulnerability and bravery of the artists who shared their stories What was clear was that artmaking was a form of awakening for the artmakers awakening to social justice issues awakening to their ability to connect to the community through art and even awakening to their own value which for so many had been wholly unrecognized prior to this experience This book comes at a time of deep reflection on equity diversity and inclusion in our nation and the stories remind us that our children are absorbing these conversations They are living these experiences and their voices are an essential part of the dialogue Habeebah R Grimes Chief Executive Officer
