The Foreign Policy Of Liberia During The Tubman Era 1944 1971

Robert A. Dibie

The Foreign Policy Of Liberia During The Tubman Era 1944 1971:

The Political Economy of Foreign Policy in ECOWAS Timothy M Shaw, Julius Emeka Okolo, 1994-05-13 Both political economy and foreign policy have been transformed in the sixteen states of West Africa at the start of the 1990s because of interrelated external factors end of the Cold War and start of a New International Division of Labour and internal factors national structural adjustment programmes Sixteen leading analysts of new regional relations of both cooperation and conflict offer original revisionist insights into ECOWAS and ECOMOG debt and democracy reform and resistance The mixture of case studies and comparative analyses constitutes a comprehensive overview of West African actors issues structures perspectives and possibilities at the end of the century with relevance for development discourses and directions in other peripheral regions Together these offer timely redefinitions and reconceptualisations of central notions like civil society diplomacy foreign policy peacekeeping security and self reliance for political economies and cultures throughout the South

The Politics and Policies of Sub-Saharan Africa Robert A. Dibia, 2001 This book attempts to correct the impression created by Western media that Sub Saharan Africa is in a state of anarchy The text analyzes and shows that while many Sub Saharan African nations are experiencing the worst time of their history others are enjoying their best times Thus the text argues that although some parts of Africa are experiencing crisis the continent is also a fine region of major new experiments in governance peace building and free market transformation programs Finally the text focuses some of its analyses on the colonial legacy economic and ethnic transformation indigenous institutions and other forces that seem to influence the governance of Sub Saharan African nations

Historical Dictionary of Liberia Elwood D. Dunn, Amos J. Beyan, Carl Patrick Burrowes, 2000-12-20 Originally formed to harbor freed slaves and Americans returning to Africa Liberia once was a land of hope That was shattered by a long Civil War that shook its very foundation Today s Liberia is glimpsed in this second edition Building on the first edition this updated volume focuses on the personalities from the founders of Liberia to the soldiers who are responsible simultaneously for destruction and the hope of stability Along with these people various social and ethnic groups political parties and labor movements economic entities and natural resources are profiled in this updated work A new chronology of Liberia is included and a selected bibliography suggests further readings for the scholar

The Presidency of William V.S. Tubman Ralph Greenwood, 2021-09-07 This is a path breaking analysis of the Presidency of William V S Tubman of Liberia 1944 1971 and his attempt to end the subjugation of the African majority in Liberia by the American Liberian minority During his presidency he put forth a great deal of effort to get Liberia involved in becoming a participant in the world community of nations

The First Liberian Civil War George Klay Kieh, 2008 This book challenges the dominant view that the first Liberian civil war was caused by ethno cultural antagonisms between and among the country s various ethnic groups Alternatively the book argues that the war was the consequence of the multifaceted crises of underdevelopment cultural economic political and social generated by the neo colonial Liberian State

Dependency and the Foreign Policy of a Small Power George Klay Kieh,1992 An assessment of the relationship between the economic dependence of the Third World states and their foreign policy orientations this text specifically examines the impact of dependency on the foreign policy of Liberia

The Institutional Transformation of the Economic Community of West African States Kofi Oteng Kufuor,2017-03-02 This book examines regional economic integration in West Africa within the context of the institutional evolution of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS It uses the tools of the New Institutional Economics School NIE to explore the origins and development of the most recent ECOWAS Treaty Particular attention is given to the interface between domestic legal arrangements and the success of open markets at the regional and international levels

African International Relations Mark W. DeLancey,2019-03-13 African International Relations is a thoroughly revised and updated bibliography that contains annotated entries for international books and journal articles in the field of African international relations

Ibss Poli Sci 29 1980 "International Committee For Social Sciences Documentation",2013-10-15 The International Bibliography of the Social Sciences IBSS is an essential tool for librarians academics and researchers wishing to be kept up to date with the published literature in the social sciences IBSS is compiled in four divisions Anthropology Sociology Economics and Political Science This is Volume XXIX of the International bibliography of political science as of 1980

The Dynamics of Economic and Political Relations Between Africa and Foreign Powers Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasongo,1999-01-30 International relations at large and Africa s in particular are shaped by the actors historical location by what they offer economically and culturally and by who they are socially In international relations nations tend to deal with objective conditions as they are or as they are perceived However Lumumba Kasongo demonstrates through case studies of Liberia and Zaire Congo that what the objective conditions are may not necessarily be what they ought to be in the national development process The international struggle for power between the West and the East and their supportive brutal and oppressive states in the South especially in Africa created the extremely weak conditions that redefined international relations as the tools of domination rather than the tools of understanding and cooperation As Lumumba Kasongo clarifies Africa did not gain economically or developmentally from this struggle An important work for scholars and researchers of contemporary Africa and international relations in general

Christianity and Politics in Doe's Liberia Paul Gifford,2002-05-16 This study examines the role of Christianity in Liberia under the corrupt regime of Samuel K Doe 1980 1990 Paul Gifford shows that in general Liberian Christianity far from being a force for justice and human advancement diverted attention from the cause of Liberia s ills left change to God s miraculous intervention encouraged obedience and acceptance of the status quo and thus served to entrench Doe s power This Christianity devised in and controlled from the United States thus furthered regional American economic and political objectives which were designed to support Doe s rule

African Liberation Dr. Amos M. "Deluxe" Sirleaf, Ph.D.,2010-03-25 Conflict is an increasing threat to national and international security and a major challenge to development

It is significant to acknowledge that civil conflict has impoverished countries in every major region of the world with specific emphasis on Africa In case of Liberia which is the main objective of this study the 25 years civil conflict not only wiped out the achievements of decades of economic and social development but destroyed thousands of lives the physical assets of the country and disrupted trade links which devastated the fabrics of the Liberian society This study will be focusing on new system which will require the United States the International Community The European Union The EEC and other Non Governmental Organizations social political and economic cohesion as a pre condition for reconstruction rehabilitation reconciliation and recovery As a practitioner specialist and a 21st century student of politics of life Post independence Black Africa political and historic cultural and Liberian political scientist international political systems comparative international political problems and global political cultural diversity I am cognizant and I do indeed care about Liberia Africa in global conflicts that have profound effects on Africa and implications which lead to war instability and international tension as well as about events which lead to equitable interdependence integration peace improvement of quality of life reduction of exploitation imperialism human rights violation perpetrated by post independence African leadership Because I am a Black African Liberian I do care about these national international regional state of affairs that specifically affect Africa in general and Liberia in particular I have tried over the years to make some life time attempt to make some scholastic decisions as it reflects on my research to advance procedures in conflict management and resolution theories about systematizing my observations and improving my knowledge and skills of pre conflict analysis of Africa in general and post conflict analysis of Liberia in particular

African Liberation Amos M. "Deluxe" Sirleaf Ph. D., 2010-03 Conflict is an increasing threat to national and international security and a major challenge to development It is significant to acknowledge that civil conflict has impoverished countries in every major region of the world with specific emphasis on Africa Civil Conflict has wiped out the achievements of decades of economic and social development In case of Liberia which is the main objective of this study the 25 years civil conflict not only wiped out the achievements of decades of economic and social development but destroyed thousands of lives the physical assets of the country and disrupted trade links which devastated the fabrics of the Liberian society The Liberian violent conflict leaves a legacy of militarized guerilla warfare leadership culture divided societies widespread displacement and decimated institutional capacity For many Liberians dealing with devastation of war is a bitter experience that will never be forgotten The present Liberian political context is extremely imperative in any transition from post conflict situation to a more stable and secured environment that will facilitate the national reconciliation of former political adversaries and combatants and lead to a more stable and secured environment that will enable refugees to return to their homes areas and permit the commencement of urgent rehabilitation effort such as the rebuilding of the administrative infrastructure of the country such as the core ministries legal system especially the courts and the opening and operation of ports air ports harbors telecommunication facilities and electricity For these urgent post conflict rehabilitation actions to take place however it was necessary for an elected government to be in place with the clear mandate to govern especially where as in Liberia the conflict originated from a struggle for political power between contending ethnic groups and their armed supporters This scenario has not been a reality for the Liberian people The greatest challenge to the Liberian people however is the post civil conflict reconstruction rehabilitation and recovery indeed for countries emerging from prolong violent conflict This study will be focusing on new system which will require the United States the International Community The European Union The EEC and other Non Governmental Organizations social political and economic cohesion as a pre condition for reconstruction rehabilitation reconciliation and recovery As a practitioner specialist and a 21st century student of politics of life Post independence Black Africa political and historic cultural and Liberian political scientist international political systems comparative international political problems and global political cultural diversity I am cognizant and I do indeed care about Liberia Africa in global conflicts that have profound effects on Africa and implications which lead to war instability and international tension as well as about events which lead to equitable interdependence integration peace improvement of quality of life reduction of exploitation imperialism human rights violation perpetrated by post independence African leadership Because I am a Black African Liberian I do care about these national international regional state of affairs that specifically affect Africa in general and Liberia in particular I have tried over the years to make some life time attempt to make some scholastic decisions as it reflects on my research to advance procedures in conflict management and resolution theories about systematizing my observations and improving my knowledge and skills of pre conflict analysis of Africa in general and post conflict analysis of Liberia in particular Development, (Dual) Citizenship and Its Discontents in Africa Robtel Neajai Pailey,2021-01-07 Drawing on rich oral histories from over two hundred in depth interviews in West Africa Europe and North America Robtel Neajai Pailey examines socio economic change in Liberia Africa s first black republic through the prism of citizenship Marking how historical policy changes on citizenship and contemporary public discourse on dual citizenship have impacted development policy and practice she reveals that as Liberia transformed from a country of immigration to one of emigration so too did the nature of citizenship thus influencing claims for and against dual citizenship In this engaging contribution to scholarly and policy debates about citizenship as a continuum of inclusion and exclusion and development as a process of both amelioration and degeneration Pailey develops a new model for conceptualising citizenship within the context of crisis affected states In doing so she offers a postcolonial critique of the neoliberal framing of diasporas and donors as the panacea to post war reconstruction A Liberian Life D. Elwood Dunn,2022-02-22 An account of the author s triple careers in academia and services to two distinct governments of Liberia William R Tolbert s and Ellen Johnson Sirleaf s consultant Situated between the crisis years of the True Whig Party TWP regime and the hopeful years of the first post civil war government stands more than three decades of teaching research and public intellectual engagement More than an impressionistic account the author employs a rich repertoire of unpublished documents that include his personal cabinet notes and a wide range of government papers His personal research papers acquired from archival research and interviews over the years supplement these It is this rich background material that enables the telling of a fascinating story of the tensions within the TWP regime on the eve of the bloody 1980 coup and in the process paints enlightening portraits of such key players as Tolbert and his finance minister Ellen Johnson Sirleaf among a host of others Included as well are some specifics of the 1979 rice riots and its impact on the politics of change Discoveries are also unearthed about the author's role in racially integrating and internationalizing an American Episcopal Anglican University in rural Tennessee Among the questions explained are Who was President Tolbert What sort of finance minister to Tolbert was Ellen Johnson Sirleaf Who was C Cecil Dennis Who was Jackson Fiah Doe Who was Bacchus Matthews How did the forces for change interact with those of the status quo in the 1970s What were some of the forces at play in the reform attempts in the early 2000s All things considered what are Liberia's prospects going forward

The Mask of Anarchy
Stephen Ellis, 2001-03 An essential explanation to the 1990 civil upheaval in Liberia that rippled through West Africa For the last decade Liberia has been one of Africa's most violent trouble spots In 1990 when thousands of teenage fighters including young men wearing women's clothing and bizarre objects of decoration laid siege to the capital the world took notice Since then Liberia has been through devastating civil upheaval and the most feared warlord Charles Taylor is now president What began as a civil conflict has spread to other West African nations Western correspondents saw in the Liberian war a primeval savage Africa a heart of darkness They focused on sensational primitive aspects of the conflict such as the prevalence of traditional healers and soothsayers and shocked the international community with tales of cannibalism especially the eating of the body parts of defeated opponents which was widespread Eschewing popular stereotypes and simple explanations Stephen Ellis traces the history of the civil war that has blighted Liberia in recent years and looks at its political ethnic and cultural roots He focuses on the role religion and ritual have played in shaping and intensifying this brutal war
