Communism and Nationalism, 1917-1923 ... Revised Edition. [With Plates.]*. Richard Edgar PIPES, 1964 USSR: Strategic Survey United States. Department of the Army, 1969 Russian Research Center Studies, 1968 The Dynamics of Soviet Politics Paul Cocks, Robert Vincent Daniels, Nancy Whittier Heer, 1976 The Dynamics of Soviet Politics is the result of reflective and thorough research into the centers of a system whose inner debates are not open to public discussion and review a system which tolerates no public opposition parties no prying congressional committees and no investigative journalists to ferret out secrets The expert authors offer an inside view of the workings of this closed system a view rarely found elsewhere in discussions of Soviet affairs Their work building as it does on the achievements of Soviet studies over the last thirty years is firmly rooted in established knowledge and covers sufficient new ground to enable future studies of Soviet politics and social practices to move ahead unencumbered by stereotypes sensationalism or mystification Among the subjects included are attitudes toward leadership and a general discussion of the uses of political history the dramatic cycles of officially permitted dissent the legitimacy of leadership within a system that has no constitutional provision for succession the gradual adoption of Western inspired administrative procedures and systems management a study of group competition and bureaucratic bargaining Khrushchev's virgin lands experiment and its subsequent retrenchment the apolitical values of adolescents the problems of integrating Central Asia into the Soviet system a history of peaceful coexistence and its current importance in Soviet foreign policy priorities and finally an overview of Soviet government as an extension of prerevolutionary oligarchy with an emphasis on adaptation to political change The Soviet Bloc, Unity and Conflict Zbigniew Brzezinski, 1967 This is the first full length study of relations among the communist states The study explores the implications of the status of Yugoslavia and China the significance of the Hungarian revolution and the position of Poland in the Soviet bloc and clarifies the Khrushchev Gomulka clash of 1956 and the complex role of Tito Zbigniew Brzezinski emphasizes the role of ideology and power in the relations among the communist states contrasting bloc relations and the unifying role of Soviet power under Stalin with the present situation He suggests that conflicts of interest among the ruling elites will result either in ideological disputes or in weakening the central core of the ideology leading to a gradual decline of unity among the Communist states The author while on leave from his post as Professor and Director of the Research Institute on Communist Affairs Columbia University and serving on the U S State Department's Policy Planning Council has revised and updated his important study and added

Russia's Protectorates in Central Asia Seymour Becker,2004-08-02 This book examines the Russian conquest of the ancient Central Asian khanates of Bukhara and Khiva in the 1860s and 1870s and the relationship between Russia and the territories until their extinction as political entities in 1924 It shows how Russia s approach developed from one of non intervention with the primary aim of preventing British expansion from India into the region to one of increasing intervention as trade and Russian settlement grew It goes on to discuss the role of Bukhara and Khiva in the First World War and the Russian Revolution and how the region was fundamentally changed following the Bolshevik conquest in 1919 20 The book is a re issue of a highly regarded classic originally published in 1968 and out of print for some years The new version includes a new introduction some corrections of errors and a survey of new work undertaken since first publication     The Soviet Union - Federation or Empire? Tania Raffass,2012-06-14 The Soviet Union is often characterised as nominally a federation but really an empire liable to break up when individual federal units which were allegedly really subordinate colonial units sought independence This book questions this interpretation revisiting the theory of federation and discussing actual examples of federations such as the United States arguing that many federal unions including the United States are really centralised polities It also discusses the nature of empires nations and how they relate to nation states and empires and the right of secession highlighting the importance of the fact that this was written in to the Soviet constitution It examines the attitude of successive Soviet leaders towards nationalities and the changing attitudes of nationalists towards the Soviet Union Overall it demonstrates that the Soviet attitude to nationalities and federal units was complicated wrestling in a similar way to many other states with difficult questions of how ethno cultural justice can best be delivered in a political unit which is bigger than the national state

War, Revolution, and Nation-making in Lithuania, 1914-1923 Tomas Balkelis, 2018 In this book Tomas Balkelis explores how the Lithuanian state was created and shaped by the Great War from its onset in 1914 to the last waves of violence in 1923 As the very notion of independent Lithuania was constructed during the war violence is seen as an essential part of the formation of Lithuanian state nation and identity War was much more than simply the historical context in which the tectonic shift from empire to nation state took place It transformed people policies institutions and modes of thought in ways that would continue to shape the nation for decades after the conflict subsided In telling the story of the post WWI conflict in Lithuania War Revolution and Nation Making in Lithuania 1914 1923 focuses on the soldiers and civilians involved in the conflict rather than the strategies and acts of politicians generals or diplomats The volume s two main themes are the impact of military social and cultural mobilizations on the local population and different types of violence that were so characteristic of the region throughout the period. The actors in this story are people displaced by war and mobilized for war: refugees, veterans, volunteers, peasant conscripts, POWs, paramilitary fighters, and others who took to guns, not diplomacy, to assert their power. This is the story of how their lives were changed by war and how they shaped the society that emerged after war.
