The Formless Self Stefan Ahmann, 2024-12-28 Our lives are out of balance we have forgotten the non dual the Eternal Basically we have become spiritual seekers because something about our lives feels off But we often fail to see to what extent our personal problems are also a symptom of a more general societal dysfunction In this book I try to explain why we as society and as humanity have become so lamentably one sided and disconnected I also describe in some detail how we can reverse this self alienation which is the main reason for our current polycrisis Paradoxically we can only express our individuality fully and creatively when we are also aware of our true spiritual Nature Indeed we can only allow and encourage others to flourish as individuals when we see everybody as a unique expression of the One Self This book is about the integration of the relative the limited form mind and the Absolute the Unlimited Life Being However it is only with non dual awakening that this integration process can really pick up momentum We need to support each other in this all important quest for truth love and wholeness

Who One Is J.G. Hart, 2009-04-21 Both volumes of this work have as their central concern to sort out who one is from what one is In this Book 1 the focus is on transcendental phenomenological ontology When we refer to ourselves we refer both non ascriptively in regard to non propertied as well as ascriptively in regard to propertied aspects of ourselves The latter is the richness of our personal being the former is the essentially elusive central concern of this Book 1 I can be aware of myself and refer to myself without it being necessary to think of any third personal characteristic indeed one may be aware of oneself without having to be aware of anything except oneself This consideration opens the door to basic issues in phenomenological ontology such as identity individuation and substance In our knowledge and love of Others we find symmetry with the first person self knowledge both in its non ascriptive forms as well as in its property ascribing forms Love properly has for its referent the Other as present through but beyond her properties Transcendental phenomenological reflections move us to consider paradoxes of the transcendental person For example we contend with the unrepresentability in the transcendental first person of our beginning or ending and the undeniable evidence for the beginning and ending of persons in our third person experience The basic distinction between oneself as non sortal and as a person pervaded by properties serves as a hinge for reflecting on the afterlife This transcendental phenomenological ontology of necessity deals with some themes of the philosophy of religion

Zen and the Modern World Masao Abe, 2003-08-31 Written by one of Japan s foremost contemporary thinkers and scholars Zen and the Modern World is the third in a series of essay collections on Zen Buddhism as seen in the context of Western thought As a leading representative of the Kyoto School which has sought a critical comparative linking of Eastern and Western thought Abe has based his approach on constructive mutually respectful yet critical intellectual interaction and dialogue with some of the leading figures in the West including Paul Tillich Hans K ng and Eugene Borowitz as well as dozens of colleagues students and disciples Together with the previous volumes this work examines and exemplifies some key features of Kyoto School thought While the essays presented here should be read in light of the socio political criticism that has since been lodged against the Kyoto School and more particularly its founder Nishida Kitar most of them were written prior to the recent discussions and focus on issues of comparative philosophy and religious thought outside the contours of the debate This should not however limit their approach to the earlier historical context

The Simple Feeling of Being Ken Wilber, 2004-07-13 As you look deeply into your own awareness and relax the self contraction and dissolve into the empty ground of your own primordial experience the simple feeling of Being right now right here is it not obvious all at once Were you not present from the start Did you not have a hand to play in all that was to follow Did not the dream itself begin when you got bored with being God Was it not fun to get lost in the productions of your own wondrous imagination and pretend it all was other Did you not write this book and countless others like it simply to remind you who you are Ken Wilber The author of nineteen books of philosophy and psychology Ken Wilber is a pioneering thinker who has developed an integral theory of everything that embraces the truths of both Eastern spirituality and Western science Yet while he is best known for his scholarly research into the world s contemplative traditions Wilber is also an accomplished spiritual practitioner and mystic in his own right In order to highlight the personal wisdom of this popular author the editors of The Simple Feeling of Being have assembled a collection of inspirational mystical and instructional passages drawn from his publications These heartfelt writings born of Ken s own meditation practice and inner experiences include Poetic passages of contemplative insights and reflections Inspired descriptions of Spirit Nondual Awareness the Witness One Taste

Windows Into the Infinite Barbara Powell,1996 A timely book to understand and put into perspective the vast corpus of the Hindu religious literature which a typical Western reader otherwise finds so daunting that he she gets discouraged and simply gives up Besides being of enormous value to spiritual seekers the book is ideally suited for study in a classroom environment The Roar of Awakening George Derfer,Zhihe Wang,Michel Weber,2013-05-02 The primary goal of this volume is to describe the contemporary state of affairs in Western psychotherapy and to do so in a Whiteheadian spirit with genuine openness to the relative ways in which creativity beauty truth and peace manifest themselves in various cultural traditions This Whiteheadian Dialogue explores afresh an important cross elucidatory path what have we and what can be learned from a dialogue with Eastern worldviews In order to generate meaningful contrasts between these different systems of thought all the papers address common core issues On one hand how does the given system understand the interaction of the individual society and nature or cosmos On the other hand what is the paradigm of all pathology and what is its typical or curative pattern U-Turn Venerable Acariya Thoon Khippapanyo,2021-06-10 The first time the students of KPYUSA got the opportunity to get together and train in the style of Dhamma taught by Luang Por Thoon Khippapanyo was in 2000 This book is a translation of a transcription of a Dhamma sermon given to Ajarn Passano the Abbott of Wat Abhayagiri on July 2 2000 at the KPYUSA mountain in Redwood Valley California USA The transcribers felt that the information contained within this sermon would be highly beneficial to those who have confusion about proper practice and desire to achieve Nibbana total enlightenment Luang Por Thoon was very concerned for the practitioners of Buddhism in our current day and age He once said that because many people are dedicated and interested in practicing if they were provided with the right way of practice they would become enlightened Unfortunately the majority of teachings in this day and age only teach the same thing that is how to prevent thinking If you become aware that your chosen method of practice is wrong will you have the courage to abandon it and try a new method Once you make that U turn you might just find that following a new path is not as hard as you might have thought At the very least Luang Por Thoon has already walked this particular path to completion to Nibbana Zen and Comparative Studies Masao Abe,1997-01-01 This volume concludes the two volume sequel to
