Moonflower, Medicine Woman Jerry D. Sisson,2011-05-05 Have you ever wondered what the American Continent was like before the Native Americans discovered that Columbus was lost A time before alcohol guns and other mechanized New World inventions The horse came onto the scene with the arrival of the Spanish Explorers in the Sixteenth Century Before the Natives were introduced to the horse all travel was by walking Though many Native tribes were highly sophisticated societies technology was still very primitive This story takes the reader to a time of scant historical traces left by a people who believed it was honorable to leave no footprints upon the Mother during ones lifetime The story itself is an obscure legend that has had reality interwoven with folklore so as to duplicate as closely as possibly the life and times of these people whose culture was wonderfully rich and colorful This story tells of how the ancient peoples upon the Continent lived before recorded history What they ate What they believed in How they survived Their politics and social life My goal is to create a feeling in my readers of having traveled to this interesting and intriguing time and place To have met the characters in their own environment where they are dealing with their personal concerns and survival Snare in the Dark Roger

Longrigg,2014-04-21 Dan Mallett usually keeps one step in front of authority in the west country village where he lives Dan goes out one night to poach pheasants and it is on that night that Major March s gamekeeper is shot dead with an arrow Knowing he will almost certainly be blamed Dan disappears whilst devising a plan to identify the real villain The Passion Flower Hotel Roger Longrigg,2014-04-21 The amusing story of the goings on in a girl s boarding school where extra curricular activities offered are a strip club and bordello for the benefit of the needy at a nearby boy s school In a crazy house of ill repute there are adventures galore all in the cause of allowing the reader to enjoy Roger Longrigg s supreme wit and storytelling
