The Future Telling Lady And Other Stories:

The Future-Telling Lady James Berry, 1994-12 From the author of Ajeemah and His Son winner of the Boston Globe Horn Book Award for Fiction comes a collection of six stories that transport readers to the richly textured world of Jamaica. The stories interweave the fantastic with the everyday and offer a wealth of detail about life in the West Indies. The QE2 Lady and Other Stories Valerie Hansard, 2018-03-19 The author has selected twenty two stories which she hopes are the best from her bountiful collection. Some are based on incidents in her personal life or on issues reported in the media and the others are pure fiction. Beautifully written and full of humour read about Stan and Irene's hilarious experience of emigrating to Fartie something just past Africa. Brits Abroad or the palaver involved in serving Lady Crockford Browne her morning cup of tea. Early Morning Tea. Once you start the book you won't be able to resist reading the next story and the next. The QE2 Lady. Other Stories will be followed by the publication of a novel and a novella both set between London and the West of Ireland as well as Valerie's personal memoirs. The Lady with the Dog and Other Stories (riverrun editions) Anton Chekhov, 2018-08-23 A man and woman fall in love in a seaside town. The only trouble is they're both married to other people. A schoolmaster is scandalized by his sweetheart riding a bicycle. A woman falls in love with a series of men each of whom leave her in different ways. Chekhov's stories capture Russian provincial life in the late nineteenth century while Garnett's translations make these classic works feel as vivid as if they were written yesterday. This exclusive selection by New Yorker writer Janet Malcolm is unmissable for the enthusiast and a brilliant introduction for anyone interested in one of the nineteenth century's greatest writers. Goodbye My Love and Other Stories Marcus A. Stockton, 2017-11-16 There are two ways that a person can walk in this life. You can either walk into your blessing or walk into your curse. How can you do that? You can do that by doing things that are natural for you to do. Success at anything is not by chance or by luck. It is seeing things you have already been doing brought to fruition. Therefore successful people are not surprised by their success. They actually knew it would happen before it happened. The blessing is the reward for a life of integrity and commitment to achieving goals and setting standards. What is the curse? It is all the negatives that we curse our lives with: the negative friends, the negative conversations, the negative situations. An unsuccessful person who continues to put himself or herself in those situations, in those conversations and around those people will bring a curse to their lives that they will never be able to shake. I am grateful for the friends and the relationships that I have been blessed with in my life. They have helped me to overcome all the obstacles of life. And that is what any man needs: incarcerated or free, people who believe in him when no one else in the world does. The Lady with the Dog and Other Stories Anton Chekhov, 2018-09-20 Reproduction of the original The Lady with the Dog and Other Stories by Anton Chekhov. Lady with the Little Dog and Other Stories, 1896-1904 Anton Chekhov, 2002-11-26 An enchanting collection of tales which showcase Anton Chekhov at the height of his power as a writer. In the final years of his life Chekhov produced some of the stories that rank among his masterpieces and some of the most highly regarded works in Russian literature The poignant The Lady with the Little Dog and About Love examine the nature of love outside of marriage its romantic idealism and the fear of disillusionment And in stories such as Peasants The House with the Mezzanine and My Life Chekhov paints a vivid picture of the conditions of the poor and of their powerlessness in the face of exploitation and hardship With the works collected here Chekhov moved away from the realism of his earlier tales developing a broader range of characters and subject matter while forging the spare minimalist style that would inspire such modern short story writers as Ernest Hemingway and William Faulkner In this edition Ronald Wilks's translation is accompanied by an introduction in which Paul Debreczeny discusses the themes that Chekhov adopted in his mature work This edition also includes a publishing history and notes for each story a chronology and further reading For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

The West Indian Novel and Its Background Kenneth Ramchand, 2004 An account of the emergence of the West Indian novel in English this work provides valuable insights into the social cultural and political background offering concise and focused accounts of the growth of education the development of literacy and the formation of West Indian Creole languages

The Protectors & Other Stories Nasir Mahmood, 2011-04-20 This collection of short stories takes its title from one of the stories contained in it The Protectors All stories are basically romantic in nature but they are not simple love stories Their themes have all the colours and their myriad shades to afford you a panoramic view of the world we live in The first story for example is that of a boy whose rebellious nature not accepting the norms of a corrupt society struggles to achieve a job on the basis of his qualification and not on the recommendation of a friend Another story deals in defence of the motherland from the vicious attack of a rival force Then there is a story which gives a graphic picture of a poverty stricken housing scheme where women forgetting about their self respect stoop so low as to adopt a life style both execrable and pitiable but there are women and there are women In brief the book touches on unemployment indignity of a religious family and inheritance inciting to murder A story each describes the horrendous custom of doing away with female fetuses the ugly face of feudalism and foundering efforts of a courtesan to escape to a righteous life Last but not least is the story of educated youth who for want of any reasonable job resort to robbery The book takes you along on a journey which unravels a picture of unspeakable misery some people are subjected to One would feel the milk of human kindness is drying up fast One could read these stories with a view to killing time but if they pause and think well that is exactly what these stories are aimed at
