The Gaa In Its Time:

A Social and Cultural History of Sport in Ireland David Hassan, Richard McElligott, 2018-02-02 Sport has played a central role in modern Ireland's history. Perhaps nowhere else has sport so infused the political, social and cultural development and identity of a nation. During this so-called Decade of Centenaries in Ireland 2014 to 2024, recently there has been an exponential growth in interest and academic research on Ireland's sporting heritage. This collection of chapters contributed by some of Ireland's most preeminent sport and social historians showcases the richness and complexity of Ireland's sporting legacy. Articles on topics as diverse as the role of native Gaelic games in emphasising the emerging cultural nationalism of pre-Revolutionary Ireland, the contribution of Irish rugby to the broader British war effort in World War 1, the emergence of Irish soccer on the international stage and the long running battle to gain official recognition within international athletics for an independent Irish state are presented. This work's intention is to illustrate some of the latest and most vibrant research being conducted on Irish sports history. This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society. Air Pollution Modeling and its Application XV Carlos Borrego, Guy Schayes, 2007-05-08 In 1969 the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) established the Committee on Challenges of Modern Society (CCMS). The subject of air pollution was from the start one of the priority problems under study within the framework of various pilot studies undertaken by this committee. The organization of a periodic conference dealing with air pollution modelling and its application has become one of the main activities within the pilot study relating to air pollution. These international conferences were successively organized by the United States, first five, Federal Republic of Germany five, Belgium five, The Netherlands four and Denmark five. With this one, Portugal takes over the duty. This volume contains the papers and poster abstracts presented at the NATO CCMS International Technical Meeting on Air Pollution Modelling and Its Application held in Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium, during 15-19 October 2001. This ITM was jointly organized by the University of Aveiro, Portugal (pilot country) and by the Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium (host country). The ITM was attended by 78 participants representing 26 countries from Western and Eastern Europe, North and South America, Asia, Australia and Africa. The main topics of this ITM were: Role of Atmospheric Models in Air Pollution Policy and Abatement Strategies; Integrated Regional Modelling; Global and Long Range Transport; Regional Air Pollution and Climate; New Developments and Model Assessment and Verification. The G.A.A. in Its Time Pádraig Puirseál, 1982 Irish Postmodernisms and Popular Culture Wanda Balzano, 2007-05-16 This collection explores popular culture in Ireland and Ireland in popular culture, from Fanfic to Orange Parades, from boybands to the Blessed Virgin Mary, from celebrity tourism to the Gaelic Athletic Association. The History of the Gaelic Athletic Association in Canada Ainsley Baldwin, John O'Flynn, 2008-07-04 The history of Gaelic games in Canada before the founding of the Gaelic Athletic Association in Ireland in 1884 and in the years since proves a determination by Irish immigrants who have arrived in numerous provinces of Canada Through their dedication the flag of Irish sports has flown strong and will continue to fly in the years to come The sporting traditions include the oldest European field game of hurling a masterful art and the fastest game in the world in which players use an ash wood stick and a hard ball Many argue with some conviction and no small amount of fact to support their case that Canada s national sport ice hockey has its origins in hurling The word puck is derived from the Irish word poc which is the action of striking the ball with a hurley In 1845 the civic fathers of Quebec City banned the playing of hurling in their narrow streets while in St John s Newfoundland hurling was being played as early as 1788 at the Barrens of the city The ladies version of hurling Camogie has had its presence on occasion in some Canadian communities The skilful play of Gaelic Football which has dominated the sporting scene across the country in many Canadian cities continues to be the greatest strength in modern times Along with two other Irish sports of handball and rounders many wonderful memories for the Canadian Irish community are celebrated in this book that captures an exciting facet of Irish culture

The Man Who Made Things Out of Trees: The Ash in Human Culture and History Robert Penn, 2016-07-25 The story of how one man cut down a single tree to see how many things could be made from it Out of all the trees in the world the ash is most closely bound up with who we are the tree we have made the greatest and most varied use of over the course of human history One frigid winter morning Robert Penn lovingly selected an ash tree and cut it down He wanted to see how many beautiful handmade objects could be made from it Thus begins an adventure of craftsmanship and discovery Penn visits the shops of modern day woodworkers whose expertise has been handed down through generations and finds that ancient woodworking techniques are far from dead He introduces artisans who create a flawless axe handle a rugged and true wagon wheel a deadly bow and arrow an Olympic grade toboggan and many other handmade objects using their knowledge of ash s unique properties Penn connects our daily lives back to the natural woodlands that once dominated our landscapes Throughout his travels from his home in Wales across Europe and America Penn makes a case for the continued and better use of the ash tree as a sustainable resource and reveals some of the dire threats to our ash trees The emerald ash borer a voracious and destructive beetle has killed tens of millions of ash trees across North America since 2002 Unless we are prepared to act now and better value our trees Penn argues the ash tree and its many magnificent contributions to mankind will become a thing of the past This exuberant tale of nature human ingenuity and the pleasure of making things by hand chronicles how the urge to understand and appreciate trees still runs through us all like grain through wood 'An Irish empire'? Sally Visick,2017-03-01 The notion that the British Empire was in any way an Irish Empire is not one that will cut very much ice on the contemporary island of Ireland north or south This volume explores aspects of the experience of Ireland and Irish people within the British Empire and addresses a central concern of modern Irish scholarship The paradox that Ireland was both imperial and colonial lies at the heart of this book One of the themes which emerges from the studies in this book is the irrelevance of the Empire to some Irish concerns Popular culture sport and film are investigated as well as business history and the military and political sinews of Empire In cinematic terms the image of Ireland has been largely in the hands of the British and American film industries Analogies between Ulster loyalists and zealous British settlers are frequently drawn The book examines the views of that region s businessmen on the British Empire including their perception of Empire the role of Empire as an economic unit and views the status of Northern Ireland within the Empire The eventual choice of both flags illustrates that pre partition strands of both loyalism and Unionism continued to survive among leading politicians within Ulster during the 1920s The British Empire Union of 1915 established to make the Irish more Empire minded included the energetic promotion of imperial history in schools and of the idea of Empire Day within the population as a whole Organisational Performance Management in Sport Ian O'Boyle,2015-11-19 Effective performance management systems are essential in any successful organisation In both commercial sport business and not for profit sport organisations the pressure to follow international best practice in performance management has grown significantly in recent years Organisational Performance Management in Sport is the first book to show how performance management concepts tools and principles can be applied in the modern sport environment Linking theory and practice throughout the book defines fundamental performance parameters impacting on sport organisations and introduces key issues such as individual

David Hassan, Sean Hamil, 2013-09-13 The commercialization of sport since the 1990s has had a number of consequences The market forces that have defined commercialization notably pay per view television whilst initially welcomed as important new sources of revenue have also had the unanticipated consequences of destabilizing many sporting competitions and institutions undermining the financial future of clubs in their traditional role as key social and cultural institutions This has been manifested in the paradox of chronic financial loss making amongst professional sports clubs in an era of exponential revenue growth a trend exemplified by the experience of Italy's Serie A and the English Premier League both cases examined in detail in this book But at the same time some traditional sporting organizations have sought with some success to chart a middle way retaining traditional sporting movement objectives whilst also embracing a form of commercialism The Gaelic Athletic Association in Ireland the supporter owned FC Barcelona football club and New Zealand rugby union offer illustrative examples of such strategies examined in detail This book explores the background to this clash of commercial and traditional sporting objectives and debates the consequences for wider sports governance This book was published as a special issue of Soccer and Society Representing the Sporting Past in Museums and Halls of Fame Murray G. The Hurlers Paul Rouse, 2018-09-06 In 1882 a letter was published in the Irish Times lamenting the decline of hurling The game was now played only in a few isolated rural pockets and according to no fixed set of rules It would have been absurd to imagine that within five years an all Ireland hurling championship would be underway under the auspices of a powerful national organization The Hurlers is a superbly readable account of that dramatic turn of events of the colourful men who made it happen and of the political intrigues and violent rows that marked the early years of the GAA From the very start republican and ecclesiastical interests jockeyed for control along with a small core of enthusiasts who were just in it for the sport In this authoritative and seriously entertaining book Paul Rouse shows how sport culture and politics swirled together in a heady often chaotic mix Fascinating a brilliantly researched book on hurling in the early years of the GAA Martin Breheny Irish Independent I heartily recommend it Great picture of the emergence of modern Ireland amidst sport nationalism priests and assorted crazy hotheads Brilliant stuff Dara Briain A story of pioneerism passion intrigue skulduggery and commitment a must read for the many sports and particularly hurling supporters and admirers in today's version of Ireland Irish Times Terrific Kieran Shannon Irish Examiner Brilliantly entertaining not just the gripping account of that first championship but also of how the game of hurling itself was saved in the 1880s from what seemed certain extinction Sunday Independent A brilliant piece of work Matt Cooper Both a sports and a history book full of wonderful stories from a different time with tales of passion skullduggery and controversy played out against the backdrop of what could be described as a civil war within the GAA and a land war that threatened to rip the country apart RT Culture Fascinating Frank McNally Irish Times A page turner that continues to deliver chapter after chapter The Hurlers is a must read Limerick Leader A superbly readable account an authoritative and seriously entertaining book Ireland's Own The perfect read for a brilliant hurling year Caitriona Lally Irish Independent Top Books of 2018 A vital look into the early years of the GAA and a perfect gift for both sport and history lovers Mark Gallagher Mail on Sunday Books of 2018 Marries forensic historical research of the cultural and political contexts for the emergence of modern hurling with a polished style and storytelling ability that is rare among historians Diarmaid Ferriter Irish Times Books of 2018 Flows along far more merrily and lightly than any history book has a right to and is especially enlightening when it comes to drawing the founding fathers Michael Cusack and Maurice Davin Malachy Clerkin Irish Times Sports Books of 2018 Marvellous the definitive account of this remarkable period when hurling came to life Clonmel Nationalist Brilliant Kenny Archer Irish News
