Living in the Garden James N Harris, Jr,2020-11-24 Living in the Garden is God s plan for His offspring His Sons and Daughters And yes Adam got us off track but thanks be to God Jesus paid the price in full to invite us back into the Garden Sin was the reason God put Adam mankind out of the Garden but the payment for sin by the blood of Jesus invited us back into the Garden This invitation however requires that we accept what Jesus did for us as sufficient payment for all of our sins and iniquities First by receiving Jesus as Lord and Savior and then by renewing our minds to God s plan and purpose for our existence God s plan was that we would never partake of the knowledge of good and evil He was saying that this information this knowledge does not promote life but death The blood of Jesus gives us the opportunity to make that decision for ourselves As a result we can choose to live in the Garden as the Father intended This includes Living in His care and provision Seeing life as a child and focusing only on how much you are loved filled with endless anticipation of what the Father has prepared for you Living each day and each moment of each day looking for an outpouring of God s love Living each day in constant fellowship with the Father discovering His plans and purpose for your life
