Medhurst,2015-07-04 Excerpt from The Foreigner in Far Cathay This little book does not pretend to the importance of a work on China Its aim is simply to enlighten the home public as to the actual circumstances in which residents in that remote region find themselves and to supply a few scraps of information part of it new and part of it hitherto misapprehended respecting the Chinese themselves Existing relations between China and the leading Western powers are inevitably tending towards results the importance of which to both sides cannot be exaggerated and I shall consider myself fortunate if the few words which I have herein ventured should lead to a better understanding in England of our true position and interests in Far Cathay About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Foreigner in Far Cathay, by W. in terms of imperialist exploitation and economic nationalism This study shows the usefulness and limitations of these terms for historical purposes and contributes to the separate but related debate over the significance of entrepreneurial innovation in Chinese economic history By analyzing the foreign Chinese companies business practices and by describing their involvement in diplomatic incidents boycotts strikes student protests relations with peasant tobacco growers dealings with the Kuomintang and Chinese Communist Party and a host of other activities the author brings to light the roles that big businesses played not only in China's economy but also in its politics society and foreign affairs Enclave to Urbanity Johnathan Andrew Farris, 2016-07-01 Cross cultural relations are spatial relations Enclave to Urbanity is the first book in English that examines how the architecture and the urban landscape of Guangzhou framed the relations between the Western mercantile and missionary communities and the city's predominantly Chinese population The book takes readers through three phases the Thirteen Factories era from the eighteenth century to the 1850s the Shamian enclave up to the early twentieth century and the adoption of Western building techniques throughout the city as its architecture modernized in the early Republic The discussion of architecture goes beyond stylistic trends to embrace the history of shared and disputed spaces using a broadly chronological approach that combines social history with architectural and spatial analysis With nearly a hundred carefully chosen images this book illustrates how the foreign architectural footprints of the past form the modern Guangzhou Enclave to Urbanity is a study of one of China's most important cities at the most exciting time in its history This carefully researched work not only offers an in depth look at Canton Guangzhou it narrates history through anecdotes and personalities associated with the city The superior illustrations combined with the excellent choice of quotes will be appreciated by audiences who are familiar with the city as well as those who have never been there Nancy S Steinhardt Professor of East Asian Art and Curator of Chinese Art University of Pennsylvania Cross cultural exchanges draw a lot of attention across various disciplines today Painting a fascinating picture of the multiple ways in which Western traders and their families transformed Guangzhou Canton together with local Chinese people from the late eighteenth to the twentieth century Farris provides a finely illustrated close reading of life and building in a global context Carola Hein Professor and Head of History of Architecture and Urban Planning Delft University of Technology Narodne pjesne Muhamedovaca u Bosni i Hercegovini, 1909 中国杂记, 1905 Mesny's Chinese Miscellany William Mesny, 1905 A text book of notes on China and the Chinese *L.
