Taiga's True Views Melinda Takeuchi, 1994-03-01 This lavishly illustrated book on one of Japan's preeminent painters focuses on the relationship between topography and the language of visual symbols a painter manipulates or must invent to suggest specific places Pictures of the Heart Joshua S. Mostow, 1996-10-01 This book provides for the first time in English the kind of information that allows an accurate appreciation of the meanings and quality of Japanese poems Mostow's reception oriented approach in this poem by poem discussion inspires an excellent essay on the history of English translations of this collection Choice Joshua Mostow offers a brilliant and multifaceted exploration of Japanese poetics through translations commentaries and both literary and visual readings of the most influential of all poem anthologies This book penetrates to the heart of traditional Japanese aesthetics Stephen Addiss University of Richmond a rigorous and engaging study of an extremely important Japanese text It is filled with information and shows a real appreciation for the often unarticulated assumptions that lay behind certain understandings both Japanese and Western concerning meaning and significance in a work of literature The study breaks still further ground by articulating and in the most persuasive fashion issues relating to text and image that are central to the Japanese arts in virtually all periods Professor Mostow has written a book that should interest not only specialists in the fields of Japanese literature and fine arts but virtually anyone who enjoys reading poetry in an active and thoughtful fashion J Thomas Rimer University of Pittsburgh The Cambridge Global History of Fashion: Volume 1 Christopher Breward, Beverly Lemire, Giorgio Riello, 2023-08-17 Explores how the long history of fashion from antiquity to c 1800 created global networks and animated world communities Chinese Paintings in

Chinese Publications, 1956-1968 Ellen Johnston Laing, 2020-08-06 This bibliography includes publications issued between 1956 and August 1968 that reproduce Chinese paintings now in Chinese public or private collections The great majority of these publications were produced in Mainland China Taiwan Hong Kong or Japan Each publication included in the bibliography has been provided with a detailed physical description of the publication itself the amounts of text the number of plates in color and in monochrome and a general evaluation of the quality of the reproductions The title by which each work is referred to in the index is included at the end of each entry Bulletin Östasiatiska museet, 1967 The Practices of Painting in Japan, 1475-1500 Quitman E. Phillips, 2000 This book attempts to expand the grounds and methodology of studying Japanese art history by focusing on the conditions procedures events and social interplay that characterized the production of paintings in late fifteenth century Japan Though the book's ultimate concerns are art historical its analysis also draws heavily from the insights of sociology and social history At its core is a fresh examination of the major primary documents of the period in an attempt to liberate the study from assumptions long embedded in the historiography of late medieval Japanese painting history Early chapters describe documents methods basic sites and conditions of painting before turning to the main contribution of the book painting considered as a body of social practices The production of painting in the late fifteenth century was profoundly social dynamically related to the circumstances of its agents Painters advisors assistants clients and others did not exert themselves simply to bring paintings into existence They sought advantages such as wealth and prestige met obligations and satisfied the demands of custom Surviving documents from the period present rich evidence of the involvement of such persons in the imperial court the Ashikaya Gozan community the great temples of Nara and the halls of local lords The author takes into account the patterns of expectation that existed at the various sites but does not construe them as static and mechanically determined Rather he shows that expectations evolved in response to changed conditions Although this study specifically addresses the last quarter of the fifteenth century it can aid future research in Japanese painting practice in other eras by serving as a model of how new interpretations can emerge from close documentary investigation Ogata Kōrin Frank Feltens, 2021-01-01 A lush portrait introducing one of the most important Japanese artists of the Edo period Best known for his paintings Iris and Red and White Plum Blossoms Ogata Kōrin 1658-1716 was a highly successful artist who worked in many genres and media including hanging scrolls screen paintings fan paintings lacquer textiles and ceramics Combining archival research social history and visual analysis Frank Feltens situates Kōrin within the broader art culture of early modern Japan He shows how financial pressures client preferences and the impulse toward personal branding in a competitive field shaped Kōrin's approach to art making throughout his career Feltens also offers a keen visual reading of the artist's work highlighting the ways Kōrin's artistic innovations succeeded across media such as his introduction of painterly techniques into lacquer design and his creation of ceramics that mimicked the appearance of ink paintings This book the first major study of Kōrin in English provides an intimate and thought provoking portrait of one of Japan's most significant artists Collecting and Displaying China's "Summer Palace" in the West Louise Tythacott, 2017-10-25 In October 1860 at the culmination of the Second Opium War British and French troops looted and destroyed one of the most important palace complexes in imperial China the Yuanmingyuan Known in the West as the Summer Palace this site consisted of thousands of buildings housing a vast art collection It is estimated that over a million objects may have been taken from the palaces in the Yuanmingyuan and many of these are now scattered around the world in private collections and public museums With contributions from leading specialists this is the first book to focus on the collecting and display of Summer Palace material over the past 150 years in museums in Britain and France It examines the way museums placed their own cultural political and aesthetic concerns upon Yuanmingyuan material and how displays especially those at the Royal Engineers Museum in Kent the National Museum of Scotland and the Musée Chinois at the Chateau de Fontainebleau tell us more about European representations and images of China than they do about the Yuanmingyuan itself An Index of Early Chinese Painters and Paintings James Cahill, James Francis Cahill, Osvald Sirén, Ellen Johnston Laing, 1980-01-01 This is the most comprehensive English language compilation available on Chinese painters and their works from the late sixth through the mid fourteenth century Incorporating the work of Ellen Johnson Laing and Osvald Siren the Index includes biographical details of the artists their style and studio names Painting Nature for the Nation Rosina Buckland, 2012-12-10 In Painting Nature for the Nation Taki Katei and the Challenges to Sinophile Culture in Meiji Japan Rosina Buckland offers an account of the career of the painter Taki Katei 1830-1901 Drawing on a large body of previously unpublished paintings collaborative works and book illustrations by this highly successful yet neglected figure Buckland traces how Katei transformed his art and practice based in modes derived from China in order to fulfil the needs of the modern nation state at large scale exhibitions and at the imperial court She provides a rare examination of the vibrant world of Chinese inspired culture during the 1880s and the hostility which it faced in the following decade Painting the Floating World Janice Katz, Mami Hatayama, 2019-01-08 From the 17th through the 19th century artists in Kyoto and Edo now Tokyo captured the metropolitan amusements of the floating world ukiyo in Japanese through depictions of subjects such as the beautiful women of the Yoshiwara pleasure quarters and performers of the kabuki theater In contrast to ukiyo e prints by artists such as Katsushika Hokusai which were widely circulated ukiyo e paintings were specially commissioned unique objects that displayed the maker's technical skill and individual artistic sensibility Featuring more than 150 works from the celebrated Weston Collection the most comprehensive of its kind in private hands and published here for the first time in English this lavishly illustrated and meticulously researched volume addresses the genre of ukiyo e painting in all its complexity Individual essays explore topics such as shunga erotica mitate e images that parody or transform a well known story or legend and poetic inscriptions revealing the crucial role that ukiyo e painting played in a sophisticated urban culture Emperor Huizong Patricia Buckley Ebrey, 2014-01-06 The first comprehensive
