Neil C. Garcia, 2016 Other than just provide an argument for the value of the reactive and the improvised the pieces in this book aspire to perform something else something quite specific as the title piece announces mythology and writing are intimately intertwined things so much so that the former is really the loftiest that the latter can ever wish to become In other words all fiction finally aspires to turn into myth for myth is nothing if not narration wielding powerful and transfigurative magic over the communal psyche that invents it providing not so much explanations as experiences of its innermost depths its uppermost visions its intuition of the transcendental without which it would be quite impossible for any of us to grieve to love and be fully a person in this world Page 4 of cover Through a Glass, Darkly Francisco Arcellana, 2017 This book compiles prose works other than short stories of National Artist Francisco Arcellana comprising of
