Faculty Success through Mentoring Carole J. Bland, Anne L. Taylor, S. Lynn Shollen, Anne Marie Weber-Main, Patricia A. Mulcahy, 2009-02-16 Few things are more essential to the success of an academic institution than vital faculty members This book is a rich combination of findings from the literature and practical tools which together assist academic leaders and faculty in implementing and participating in a successful formal mentoring program that can be used as a strategy for maintaining the vitality of a diverse faculty across all stages of an academic career In Faculty Success through Mentoring the authors describe the tangible benefits of formal traditional mentoring programs in which mentor mentee interactions are deliberate structured and goal oriented They outline the characteristics of effective mentors mentees and mentoring programs and cover other models of mentoring programs such as group and peer mentoring which are particularly suited for senior and mid career faculty Also included are tools that institutions mentors and mentees can use to navigate successfully through the phases of a mentoring relationship One of the unique features of this book is its explicit attention to the challenges to effective mentoring across genders ethnicities and generations No matter what role one plays in mentoring this book is an invaluable resource Alternative Futures in American Education ,1972 Unmasking School

Leadership Ciaran Sugrue,2014-10-06 This book is a longitudinal life history of the lives and work of primary school principals in Ireland It provides a unique opportunity to peer inside the realities of leading schools in changing times In a system that until recently did not prepare principals for the onerous roles and responsibilities a small system with limited mobility inter personal relationships emerge as critical frequently privileged over professional relationships Consequently principals struggle to bring about change to build trust in order to cultivate a transformative leadership agenda while several aspects of systemic structures and processes emerge as constraints on leadership capacity building In the absence of comprehensive leadership portfolio development classroom teachers catapulted into the principal s office tend to be cautious and careful in ways that tend to perpetuate the status quo while putting a premium on the exercise of soft power and an over reliance on the good will of colleagues Several of the leadership lessons that emerge from this in depth analysis concur with an increasing international consensus that due to complexity and increasingly performative policy demands learning about leadership for all is an absolute necessity However care must be taken to avoid overly scripted programmes Critical to the cultivation of a professionally responsible leadership disposition rather than capitulation to technologies of control is professional renewal cultivated through adequate attention to the Zone of Proximal Distance Baccalaureate Level Education, 1970-1985 Frederic W.
