Lind, Scott P. Sanders, 2013-06-29 Just over ten years ago when the first drafts of this book were being written and even more so a few years after that as it was making its way through the publication process alpine skiing was experiencing what eventually became a complete revolution in equipment and technique shaped or parabolic skis completely took over the market and even relatively beginning skiers expected to carve graceful turns as they schussed down the slopes Re reading our work with an eye to revision we have been surprised to see how our focus on the physics of skiing in the first edition allowed us to recognize the fundamental importance of what were then quite novel changes in equipment and technique The essence of the enhancement offered by shaped skis is their greater sidecut radius Our original discussion then and now in Chapters 3 and 4 of the crucial role that a ski's sidecut plays in carving a turn caused us to write for the most part as if the shaped ski had always been in existence Similarly our interest in the geometry of the sidecut allowed us to discuss snowboards in some detail as well for the key to their ability to shred down the mountain is their deep sidecut Ski, 1994-12 Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2001 Skiing, 1994-02 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Skiing in the Mad River Valley John Hilferty, Ellie Hilferty, 2010-11-01 In 1948 the first skiers to experience the steep and twisting downhill trails of Mad River Glen had to traverse muddy or frozen dirt roads to get to their destination The warmth of a country inn was a comfort on those cold winter nights and continues as a hallmark of the Mad River Valley today Even with the condo boom that developed after the opening of Sugarbush on Christmas Day in 1958 little has upset the ambience of the 20 mile long valley The valley developed a distinct personality attracting ski bums who exchanged urban pressures for a laid back lifestyle that continues today Women in Sport Barbara L.
