Small Communities In Religious Life Making Them Work:

Small Communities in Religious Life Catherine Widdicombe, 2001 Like the author's previous book Meetings That Work this is a self help manual giving practical advice in an accessible way helping people to realise their full potential. Aimed at those in small life giving communities practising collegiality subsidiarity and collaborative reflective ministry the book offers the benefit of Catherine Widdicombe's wide experience to leaders and members of communities who have no outside aid. The importance of small communities in religious life is explored and the problems faced while living in them is examined from unfamiliar and unexpected relational demands to new spiritual challenges. The author has spent over 20 years working in these areas primarily with women from widely different religious communities and has developed a highly accessible book to help leaders and members of communities who have little access to facilitators.

Meetings That Work Catherine Widdicombe, 2013-03-28 How do I establish a group? What is the best way to prepare a meeting? How should we arrange the seating? Help! I need to chair a meeting. What should I do? What sort of minutes should we keep? How can we deal with a difficult member? Can we remotivate someone who has lost interest? These are just some of the many questions dealt with in Catherine Widdicombe's Meetings that Work. A plethora of meetings and committees is one of the inescapable features of modern life. From small businesses to multinational corporations from large charities to small voluntary organisations from training courses to statutory services from professional societies to church groups from community organisations to political pressure groups meetings are endemic. Meetings help society to move forward they provide a vital medium for disseminating information and for decision making. But vital though they are they can be deadening rather than life giving. Meetings that Work is a vital aid to helping make meetings of all sorts realise their full potential for development and enjoyment. Meetings that Work is a how to guide a manual and helpmate arranged to enable the reader to focus on what is specifically needed for a particular group or situation. Based on more than two decades of practical experience the book is an invaluable vade mecum for all who attend or chair meetings.

Work, Family and Religion in Contemporary Society Nancy Tatom Ammerman, Wade Clark Roof, 2014-02-04 Until recently religious institutions have been organized to suit the traditional American family where the wife stayed at home caring for children. Today churches and synagogues are beginning to adapt to the reality of the American family dual career marriages high levels of divorce interfaith marriages partnerships that may not be marriages. Religious organizations must serve families that don't fall into the Ozzie and Harriet mold. The first group of papers in this edited volume documents changing trends in the connection between religion work and the family. In the second part of the book we see how changing families and flexible congregations are experimenting with new forms of religious life.

Mission, Ministry, Order David Noel Power, 2008-06-01 What is the mission of the church What are the ministries that further its mission How should the traditional orders of bishop overseer priest presbyter and deacon be reconsidered in the light of 21st century challenges and ecumenical unity These big questions involve a constellation of neuralgic issues both within the Roman Catholic Church and between it and its sister churches both East and West women priests women bishops married priests lay ministries the unaccountability of bishops to their flocks The rapid decline of priests in the US has led to an enormous number of lay people in leadership positions but they can't preside at the Eucharist the heart and soul of Catholic identity and practice and their roles are nebulous undefined and severely constrained Catholic women are voting with their feet over the church's failure to ordain women Lay theologians men and women now outnumber priest theologians but have little standing in the church outside of academia Far reaching agreements on theological issues have been made between Roman Catholicism and Anglicanism and Lutheranism but the practical consequences e.g. shared Eucharists are nil It is against this background that David Power the doyen of sacramental theologians in North America has written a magisterial work on the mission ministry and order of the church that is historically comprehensive theologically progressive ecumenically and globally focused and practical in its prescriptions
