through several ownerships the Manor was earmarked for demolition in 1961 reprieved it became a furniture store in the 1970s and every room was solidly packed As the roofs failed and water poured in ceilings and floors collapsed carrying with them the stacks of rotting furniture By the late 1990s walls and gables were collapsing too and the local authority attempted to intervene A long struggle to save the Manor ensued finally ending with compulsory purchase in 2013 Although manor houses occur in most English parishes they have received surprisingly little archaeological study Every year hundreds are restored or altered but rarely accompanied by detailed recording or scholarly research and popular television programs reveal the shameful level of destruction that takes place in the name of restoration This is a book like no other the holistic approach to the rehabilitation of Northwold s derelict manor house involving history archaeology architecture and genealogy demonstrates how much can be learned about a building that had never before been studied The project has received several awards The Publishers Weekly ,1923 Architecture and Building ,1923 Subject Index of the Modern Books Acquired by the British Museum in the Years ... British Museum,1922
