Discovering Psychology Sandra E. Hockenbury,Susan A. Nolan,2018-12-07 Sandra Hockenbury and new coauthor Susan Nolan s remarkable textbook is grounded in the belief that all kinds of students can develop a real understanding of psychology and lasting scientific literacy The authors act on that belief by using relatable personal stories to communicate the concepts of psychological science and the process of science itself and by presenting important research in a clear not oversimplified way Hockenbury and Nolan also take full advantage of online learning creating activities in LaunchPad that have students thinking about psychology as scientists do New co author Susan Nolan of Seton Hall University was recently designated a Master Teacher by the Society for Teaching Psychology She regularly gives talks about incorporating scientific literacy into the introductory course and across the psychology curriculum

No Man is an Island Adele Dumont,2016-07-26 This is the book about immigration detention that all Australians need to read During the time of the Gillard government 24 year old Sydneysider Adele Dumont accepted a volunteer position to teach English to men in immigration detention on Christmas Island She did not expect to find the work so rewarding or the people she met so interesting When she was offered a job working at Curtin detention centre near Derby in Western Australia she took it Working at Curtin required her to live a fly in fly out lifestyle feeling never quite settled in one place or the other She lived in a donga when she was in WA her life full of bus trips to the detention centre and the work she did there back home in Sydney she was overwhelmed by the choices people had and the things they didn t do with those choices What kept her returning to Curtin were her students men from many lands who had sacrificed all they knew for a chance to live in Australia men who were unfailingly polite to her in a situation that was barbarous Slowly falteringly these men learned her language and taught her things about their culture No Man is an Island is the story that will make the issue of immigration detention accessible to far more interested Australians than any number of stern newspaper articles It is a vividly told story that is full of characters and humanity It is the story about immigration detention that all Australians need to read

Ride with Me, Mariah Montana Ivan Doig,2013-07-02 This greathearted novel is the finale of Ivan Doig s passionate and authentic trilogy about the McCaskill family and their alluring Two Medicine country along the hem of the northern Rockies Jick McCaskill the illustrious narrator of English Creek returns as the witty and moving voice in this classic encounter with the American road and all the rewards and travails it can bring Jick faces his family's and his state's legacy of loss and perseverance from the vantage point of Montana's centennial in 1989 when his daughter Mariah enlists him as Winnebago chauffeur to her and her ex husband the magnificently ornery and eloquent columnist Riley Wright when their news paper dispatches them to dig up stories of the real Montana Just as the centennial is a cause for reflection as well as jubilation the exuberant travels of this trio bring on encounters with the past in memory storms that become occasions for reassessment and necessary accommodations of the heart
