Studies In Ethics:

Ethics in Research Ian Gregory, 2003-12 Ian Gregory explores how ethical concerns influence not only how research is conducted but also how researchers engage with a piece of research Also analysed in detail is the impact ethics have on the interpretation of data and research findings BOOK JACKET Research Ethics Deni Elliott, Judy E. Stern, 1997 This reader provides a thorough overview of the ethical dilemmas confronting contemporary research scientists Original material reprints and cases on topics such as relationships with colleagues institutional responsibility conflict of interest experimentation with animals and humans and methodologies for ethically conducting reporting and funding research clarify difficult questions for students and professionals alike The collection supports efforts in response to increasingly stringent federal mandates to include ethics instruction in research training Ethics Protocols and Research Ethics Committees D. Remenyi, Nicola Swan, Ben Van Den Assem, 2011 Conducting research to high ethical standards is of great importance to the student and the university Having an Ethics Protocol is the way of ensuring such standards can be met Researching with the use of an approved Ethics Protocol also affords protection to the student Many research degree candidates need advice to help complete an application for the approval of their Ethics Protocol This book shows how to do this in a practical and effective way The book provides background on the issue of research ethics to help students and faculty have a greater understanding of the motivations behind the requirements to write an application to the Ethics Committee for the approval of an Ethics Protocol The process of ethics approval and the function of the Ethics Committee are addressed along with how to cope with amendments to an Ethics Protocol The book draws on the work of the authors who have had direct experience with Ethics Committees and helping students comply with the requirements Back cover The Ethics of Research Involving Human Subjects Harold Y. Vanderpool, 1996 Case Studies for Ethics in Academic Research in the Social Sciences Leisa Reinecke Flynn, Ronald E. Goldsmith, 2012-04-26 This book provides a basis for class discussion about the responsible conduct of social science research These 16 brief research ethics cases describe situations in which ethical dilemmas arise and present the student with the opportunity to think through the different implications for researchers The cases emphasize different types of ethical dilemmas involving faculty students participants and stakeholders Students can discuss what happened why it was or was not unethical and what should be the consequences for the actors Included are the original cases complete with learning objectives teaching notes and questions for discussion The Ethics of Science David B. Resnik, 2005-08-12 Ethics of Science is a comprehensive and student friendly introduction to the study of ethics in science and scientific research The book covers Science and Ethics Ethical Theory and Applications Science as a Profession Standards of Ethical Conduct in Science Objectivity in Research Ethical Issues in the Laboratory The Scientist in Society Toward a More Ethical Science Actual case studies include Baltimore Affair cold fusion Milikan s oil drop experiments human and animal cloning Cold War experiments Strategic Defence Initiative the Challenger accident Tobacco Research The

Ethics of Online Research Kandy Woodfield,2017-12-15 This volume focuses on the ethics of internet and social networking research exploring the ethical challenges faced by researchers making use of social media and big data in their research

The Ethics of Research with Human Subjects David B. Resnik,2018-01-09 This book provides a framework for approaching ethical and policy dilemmas in research with human subjects from the perspective of trust It explains how trust is important not only between investigators and subjects but also between and among other stakeholders involved in the research enterprise including research staff sponsors institutions communities oversight committees government agencies and the general public The book argues that trust should be viewed as a distinct ethical principle for research with human subjects that complements other principles such as autonomy beneficence non maleficence and justice The book applies the principle of trust to numerous issues including informed consent confidentiality risk minimization risks and benefits protection of vulnerable subjects experimental design research integrity and research oversight This work also includes discussions of the history of research involving human subjects moral theories and principles contemporary cases and proposed regulatory reforms The book is useful for undergraduate and graduate students studying ethical policy issues related to research with human subjects as well as for scientists and scholars who are interested in thinking about this topic from the perspective of trust

Social Science Research Ethics for a Globalizing World Keerty Nakray,Margaret Alston,Kerri Whittenbury,2015-10-14 Research in the humanities and social sciences thrives on critical reflections that unfold with each research project not only in terms of knowledge created but in whether chosen methodologies served their purpose Ethics forms the bulwark of any social science research methodology and it requires continuous engagement and reengagement for the greater advancement of knowledge Each chapter in this book will draw from the empirical knowledge created through intensive fieldwork and provide an account of ethical questions faced by the contributors placing them in the context of contemporary debates surrounding the theory and practice of ethics The chapters have been thematically organized into five sections Feminist Ethics Cross Cultural Reflections and Its Implications for Change Researching Physical and Sexual Violence in Non Academic Settings A Need for Ethical Protocols Human Agency Reciprocity Participation and Activism Meanings for Social Science Research Ethics Emotions Conflict and Dangerous Fields Issues of Safety and Reflective Research and Social Science Education Training in Ethics or Ethical Training and Ethical Publicizing This interdisciplinary volume will interest students and researchers in academic and non academic settings in core disciplines of Anthropology Sociology Law Political Science International Relations Geography or inter disciplinary degrees in Development Studies Health Studies Public Health Policy Social Policy Health Policy Psychology Peace and Conflict studies and Gender Studies The book features a foreword by His Holiness The Dalai Lama

Beyond Regulations Nancy M. P. King,Gail E. Henderson,Jane Stein,2005-10-12 Across a broad range of disciplines in medicine social science and the humanities researchers scholars teachers and administrators increasingly are looking for new ways to approach ethical issues in research with human subjects Questions about how relationships between funders and researchers should affect research design for example or whether the potential benefits of research can outweigh the importance of its subjects interests are inadequately addressed by the prevailing regulation based research ethics paradigm This book constitutes a reexamination of research ethics It combines case studies and commentaries by a multidisciplinary group of scholars and researchers to explore such topics as informed consent conflict of interest confidentiality and research on illegal behavior All human subjects research takes place within complex social cultural and political contexts the contributors argue Increased consideration of the relationships between researchers and their subjects funders and institutions within these contexts will facilitate research that is sensitive and responsible as well as scientifically fruitful Beyond Regulations features a keynote essay by Ruth Macklin Other contributors are Marcela Aracena Alvarez Jorge Balan B Susan Bauer Alan F Benjamin Lynn Blanchard Allan M Brandt J Pat Browder Barbara Entwisle Sue E Estroff Renee C Fox Lara Freidenfelds Gail E Henderson Nancy M P King Loretta M Kopelman Ernest N Kraybill Barry M Popkin Silvina Ramos Desmond K Runyan Jane Stein Ronald P Strauss Keith A Wailoo and Cynthia Waszak Across a broad range of disciplines in biomedicine the social sciences and the humanities researchers scholars administrators and teachers increasingly struggle with questions of ethics in research with human subjects All research takes place in complex social cultural political and economic contexts yet the prevailing principle based research ethics paradigm does not adequately account for them This book reexamines research ethics using a new relationships paradigm Through in depth cases commentaries and essays a multidisciplinary group of scholars and researchers addresses informed consent conflict of interest confidentiality and other issues considering questions like What relationships should researchers have with their subjects communities When researchers and subjects have different views about research who should have control How should relationships between funders and researchers affect research design Can research be so potentially beneficial that its importance outweighs the interests of subjects Examining the relationships between researchers and subjects communities funders and institutions including considerations of authority and voice can facilitate human subjects research that is morally sensitive and responsible as well as scientifically fruitful
