He and Him Claude Britt Jr., 2012-08-16 He and Him is an autobiography dealing with both psychology and archaeology in the author's life. He was born during the Great Depression. His parents were an Ohio farmerette and a man from the Tennessee mountains who had become an alcoholic on moonshine whiskey. It was a dysfunctional family from the start. The mom soon developed very serious emotional problems apparently because she wasn't satisfied with the man whom she had married. When the author was a six-year-old boy, she told him that she planned to take him and leave his dad. However, she did the exact opposite and had more kids. Upon adding more offspring to the household, the author, then seven years old, became the victim of terrible physical and emotional abuse as well as complete neglect. From the age of seven, the author had to essentially raise himself. He tried to avoid his parents as much as possible by spending his days in the fields and meadows by himself, collecting butterflies, pretty rocks, and looking for prehistoric Indian arrowheads. After finding a few Indian arrowheads on farms in Ohio, he started a collection of Indian arrowheads and other artifacts at a very young age. His collection eventually turned into a very renowned private museum as he got a little older. When the author was almost thirteen years old, his parents quit farming and started operating their own country store in a different community. Chapter 3 in this book describes life in country stores in Ohio during the 1940s and 1950s. The author lived in such a country store environment until he turned eighteen and went away to college. He was the first of any of his relatives to ever go away to college. His mother furnished him money to attend college, but he did it completely on his own with absolutely no family encouragement or support to get a degree. From the time that the author started getting educated, his mom refused to ever call him by his given name. She only referred to him as either He or Him. Others in the family soon became full of covetousness towards him because they perceived that he had advantages which they didn't have. Competitive jealousy of others in the household mounted their believing that they had to try to outdo the educated member of the family. A long drawn-out bitter family war against the author ensued. Disrespect for the author's higher education continued in later years by not only the third generation but also by in-laws who didn't even know the author when he was in college. After receiving both a BS degree and an MA degree in geology with a master's thesis dealing with archaeology of Archaic Indian sites near his hometown, the author took a temporary summer job as a national park ranger at Canyon de Chelly National Monument at Chinle, Arizona. Canyon de Chelly is located in the center of the vast Navajo Indian Reservation. Getting to live and work in such a beautiful natural area was like a dream come true. That first summer's work at Canyon de Chelly motivated the author to eventually work as a seasonal park ranger in six other national parks and monuments. After working at Canyon de Chelly for one summer, the author ended up going back to Arizona where he lived for ten more years. He married a woman in Kansas who he hardly even knew then. He went to the University of Arizona where he spent two years working towards a PhD degree.

After that he and his wife spent eight more years back on the Navajo Indian Reservation During those years on the reservation he taught Navajo Indian children on a substitute teaching certificate It was a full time job in the winter Almost all of his students were Navajo Indians He taught all grade levels from kindergarten through high school Chapters 6 7 and 8 of this book are devoted to stories about life in remote areas of the reservation in the 1960s and 1970s At that time the author's doctor and grocery stores were 145 miles from where he lived There we

Stronger Through Christ Ami Dark-Rosen,2012-02-29 Life doesn't always go as planned How many times have you asked the Lord why bad things have happened to you or those you love I have asked Him that question countless times throughout my life when hardships have come my way When I was five years old I encountered a curveball that I was not expecting this curveball has altered my life in such a way that has caused me to ask the Lord for His forgiveness Thankfully that bump in the road afforded me with blessings and joy But just as I had begun to relish in those blessings the Lord presented me with another difficulty to overcome The struggle that resulted forced me to learn how to cope with a new way of life and I would not have survived without Jesus Christ holding my hand and guiding me through He has turned the hardships into opportunities for growth enrichment and encouragement I began this memoir as a gift for my daughter Sarah My wish for her is to recognize that she is a child of God's and that her life and every life has purpose
